sf supervisors,

stop the insanity of adding to all the ridiculous lawsuits already plaguing our city.

recind the 'payout for cooperating with ICE in our sanctuary city'. it does NOT make sense to spend our tax dollars in this way when it could be used to help the homeless families/children & veterans.

i do not want families separated due to one's undocumented status either.....but this is dumb.

Respectfully, I have to say I'm absolutely appalled and disgusted that the City of San Francisco would award one hundred and ninety thousand Tax Payer dollars to an Illegal Alien! Enforcing Federal Law is now a crime in San Francisco, with huge rewards given to the real criminals? This is a massive slap in the face to every legal resident of California! When I heard the story on the news last night, it has literally kept me up for most of the night. I couldn't sleep, I was just so angry, outraged and totally baffled. In what bizarre, backwards universe could this ever be logically justified?

Subject: The story of Mr Figueroa-Zarcena

Dear Supervisors,

The story of Mr. Figueroa-Zarcena pushes two hot buttons for me.

The first of these is San Francisco's execrable practices regarding the recovery of stolen cars. I'm reminded of the story of the working woman several years ago whose old car was stolen and recovered in San Francisco. Because she was at work, she could not meet the unreasonable deadline of one half-hour (or maybe even less!) to come pick up her car.

She could not afford the towing and storage charges, and after her car was auctioned off, she owed money because the proceeds of the auction did not cover her towing and storage charges.

In the present matter, a part of Mr. Figueroa-Zarcena's suffering is due not to a violation of the sanctuary city policy, but rather to this same city policy of predation on the poor and lower middle classes whenever one of their motor vehicles is stolen and recovered. So don't you dare try to impute Mr. Figueroa-Zarcena's loss of his truck to a violation of the city's sanctuary policy. That's 100% a result of your policies that are nothing more than predation on the poor and lower middle classes whenever one of their stolen motor vehicles is recovered in San Francisco. These policies are beyond outrageous, and if you can't fix them legislatively, look for an exercise of Direct Democracy coming very soon to a ballot box near you.

So much for hot button number one.

The second hot button is that the amount of the settlement negotiated is excessive. Mr. Figueroa-Zarcena might have been taken into custody on his civil deportation warrant at any time by Federal agents, and so it's just not fair to the taxpayers of San Francisco that we compensate him for his Federal incarceration. The amount of this settlement will accomplish absolutely nothing towards the stated purpose of "making sure that San Francisco's sanctuary policies are strictly observed": the only way to do that is to have to severe consequences for law enforcement officers who violate them.

As someone who pays local taxes, I feel entitled to ask how much of this settlement is going as fees to the Asian Law Caucus. The mission statement of this organization is "to promote, advance, and represent the legal and civil rights of Asian and Pacific Islander communities".

Last time I looked, Asian and Pacific Islander communities do not include Ecuador. As a local taxpayer, then, I feel compelled to ask how much of this munificent award of $190,000 is slated to go the Asian Law Caucus as fees. One is also struck by the peculiar amount: is $200,000 or above some kind of threshold where the rules become different? The Caucus gets funding in the form of grants from many offices of San Francisco local government. Given that, is it really unreasonable to ask whether all this is partly an exercise in stealth funding of the Asian Law Caucus? To the extent that this might be happening, you are not using city funds properly.

Even taking into account Mr. Figueroa-Zarcena's two month incarceration and loss of his truck, I feel that the amount of $190,000 is excessive.

Each of you will soon vote whether to ratify this proposed settlement.

You may feel that most of your constituents would favor it because they favor the sanctuary city policy, and so you will vote to ratify. My main purpose here is to point out that even some supporters of the sanctuary city policy will agree with the points that I have made here. Add them to those oppose the policy, and you will see that he seemingly obvious vote to ratify in fact comes with considerable political peril.

I urge you to vote against ratification and to tell Mr. Herrera that he cannot agree to more than say, $20,000 plus the cost of a new truck for Mr Figueroa-Zarcena, and $10,000 in fees for the Asian Law Caucus. Such a settlement is completely fair to him, and is much fairer to us taxpayers.

Well, there you have hot button number two.

Respectfully submitted,

David Nadler

Subject: law suit for undocumented ICE detainee

Creating a sanctuary City where undocumented people are free to report crimes without Federal harassment is a sane idea for a city looking to manage crime. What is insane and a very bad precedent would be to pay this undocumented person a large sum of taxpayer dollars ,simply because a police officer called ICE. Fire the police officer if you want to make a punitive example but do not start handing out hard earned cash to people who are here undocumented . what the hell would we be thinking. The Mayor clearly does not have his constituents in mind by opening the doors to this kind of scam.

I was born and raised in San Francisco and I hail from Irish Mexican descent. My grandfather came here and went through the process to become a citizen should we not expect the same from other immigrants.
