Attention: All Members of the San Francisco Board of Supervisors,

I recall reading (linked article below) some years ago about Larry Blinkin, a former city employee veteran of 22 years at the Human Rights Commission, who was arrested and pled guilty to possession of child porn.

This former employee is still receiving a city pension 10+ years after his arrest for such an egregious crime. Worst yet, the FACT, in an email it was revealed he used the N-word in celebrating a 2 year old Black boy being violated while still employed with the city.

Juxtapose the crime Mr. Blinkin pled guilty to with the crimes of other former city officials, like Mr. Nuru, Mr. Kelly and Mr. Hui.

The embarrassing crimes uncovered by these more recent city officials does not call for a Charter Amendment. We only need the backbone to enforce Charter rules on moral turpitude violations. Or remove those two words from our Charter, if you catch my drift.
