5 format.

6

7 MOVED, That within three business days of the introduction or amendment of any 8 proposed Ordinance, Resolution, or written Motion, the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors shall 9 make available the Ordinance, Resolution, or written Motion, including all document data
10 concerning the Board’s public legislative process, on the Board’s website in machine-readable
11 format. For the purpose of this Motion, “machine-readable format” shall include formats
12 consistent with the Open Data Policy rules and standards promulgated by the Chief Data 13 Officer under Administrative Code, Section 22D.2. This requirement is directory only, and 14 shall not provide a basis for invalidating any Ordinance, Resolution, or Motion adopted by the 15 Board of Supervisors.
