

FAMILY ZONING PLAN LANDMARKING

D3

Landmark Initiation
Land Use & Transportation Committee
April 20, 2026

Danny
SAUTER
李爾德
DISTRICT 3 SUPERVISOR

Office of District 3 Supervisor
Danny Sauter

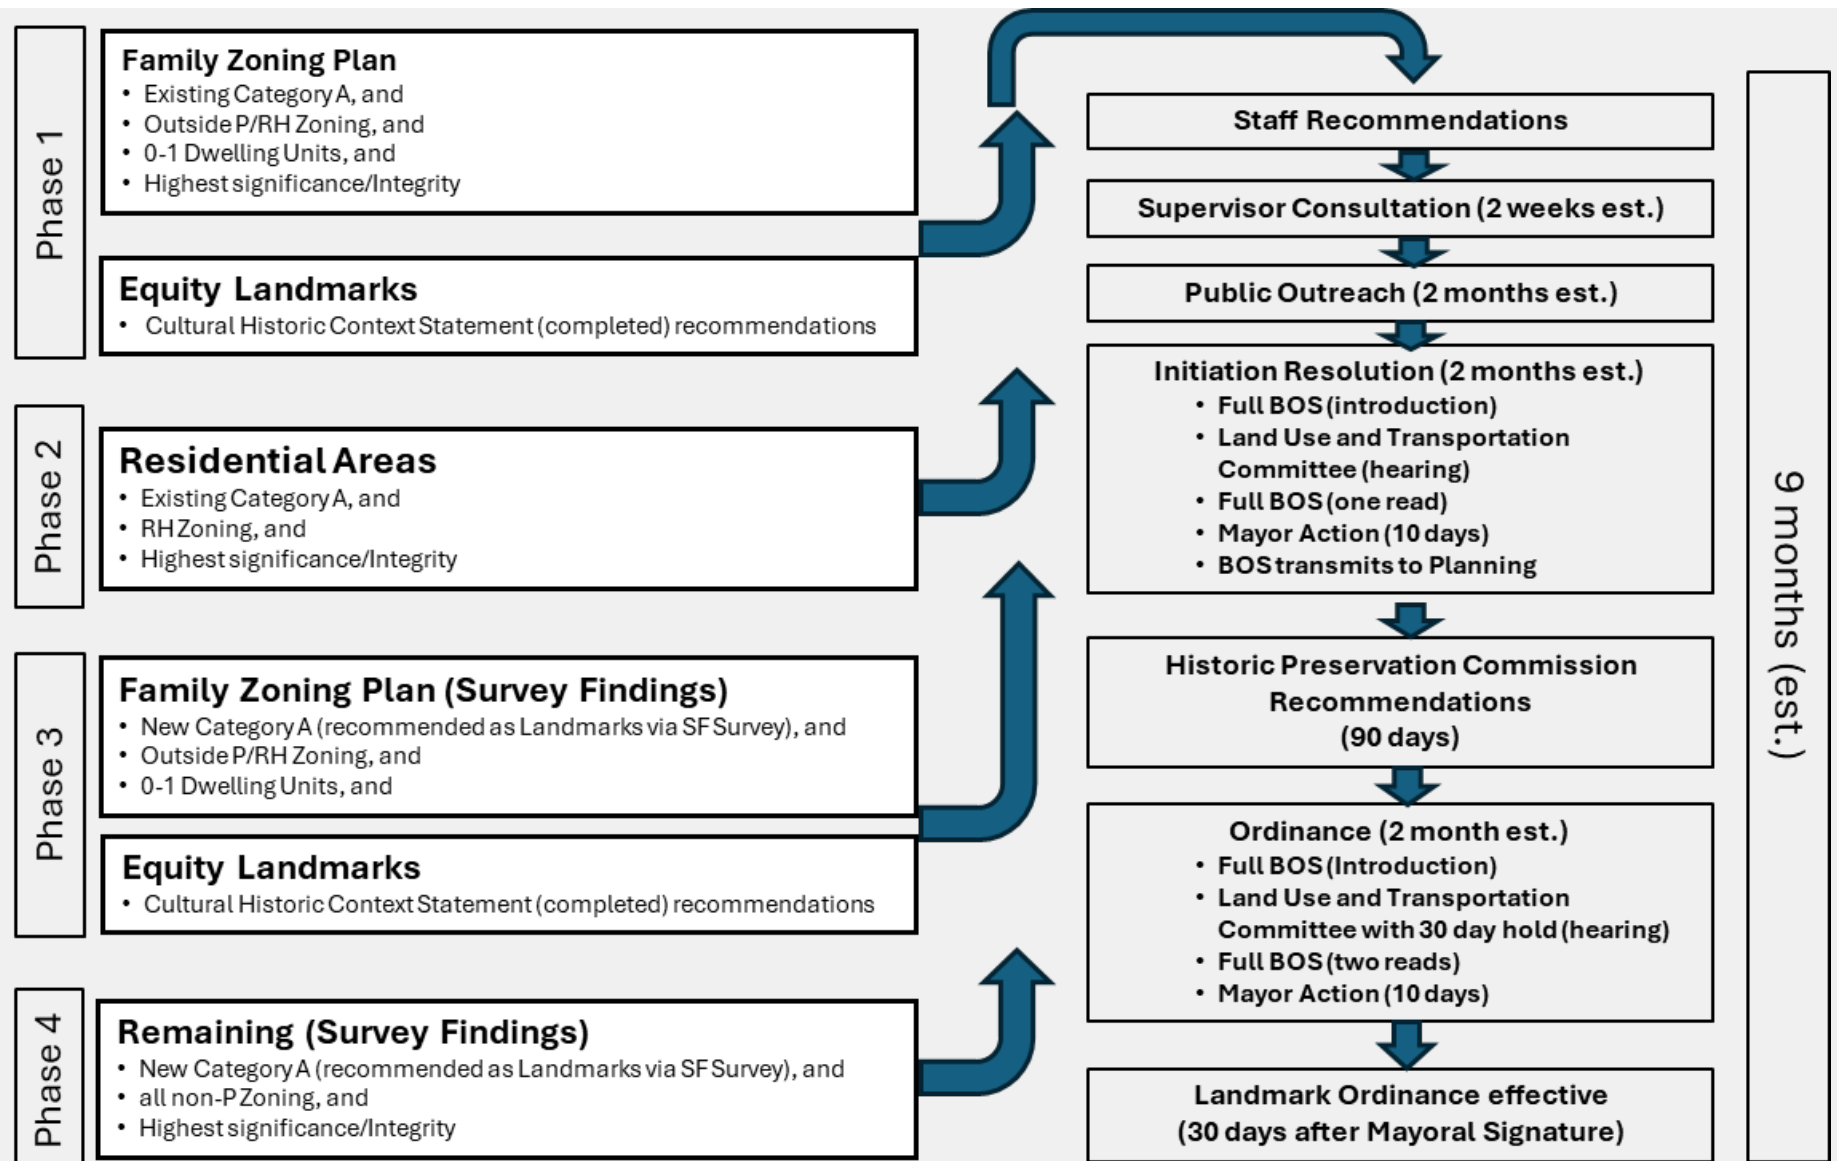

San Francisco
Planning

Existing D3 Article 10 Landmarks

Family Zoning Plan Landmarks Process

Phase 1: District 3 Proposed Landmarks

University Club
800 Powell Street
Year Built: 1908
Significant for its Roman Renaissance Revival architecture designed by San Francisco architects of merit Bliss & Paville originally for Stanford University

Central Chinese High School
827-829 Stockton Street
Year Built: 1914
Significant for its association with Chinese cultural heritage as a school that promoted Chinese culture and study

Mone's Candlelight Lounge
469-479 Broadway
Year Built: 1907
Significant for its association with LGBTQ history in San Francisco as a queer nightclub

Saints Peter & Paul Church
600-660 Filbert Street
Year Built: 1922-1924
Significant for its association with Italian American cultural heritage and for its Gothic Romanesque architecture

Telegraph Hill Neighborhood Association
1738 Stockton Street
Year Built: 1907
Significant for its First Bay Tradition architecture designed by architect of merit Bernard Maybeck

Finocchio's
800-808 Broadway
Year Built: 1916
Significant for its association with LGBTQ history in San Francisco as a nightclub featuring cross-gender entertainment popular with both the queer community and tourists

California Masonic Church
1111-1171 California Street
Year Built: 1908
Significant for its Midcentury Modern architecture designed by architect of merit Albert F. Roller

Chinese Consolidated Benevolent Association
849 Stockton Street
Year Built: 1908
Significant for its association with Chinese cultural heritage as the former HQ of the six hui-kuan, an alliance of rival Chinese factions, which represented the interests of all Chinese in S.F. and the West

A. Cavalli Bookstore / Vesuvio Cafe
203 Columbus Avenue
Year Built: 1913
Significant for its association with the Counterculture movement in San Francisco

Greet China Theater
626 Jackson Street
Year Built: 1924
Significant for its association with Chinese cultural heritage originally occupied by the Ying Yee Lun Hop Theatrical Co., a Chinese Opera company, and later as The Great Star Theater showing Chinese-language movies

Rimbo's 365 Club
1001-1025 Columbus Avenue
Year Built: 1931
Significant for its association with Italian American cultural heritage, its Midcentury Modern architecture designed by architect of merit Timothy Pflueger, and as a popular nightclub

Fugazi Building
678 Green Street
Year Built: 1912
Significant for its association with the Italian American cultural heritage, LGBTQ history in San Francisco, and architect of merit Italo Zanolini

Sing Chong Building
615 Grant Avenue
Year Built: 1907-1908
Significant for its association with Chinese cultural heritage as originally built as Chinese Bazaar with tenants Look Tin Eli, a successful Chinese American businessman

George Perine House
535 Powell Street
Year Built: 1910
Significant as a rare and very late example of a second empire style house and as the only structure left downtown built as a single-family residence

Italian Athletic Club
1630 Stockton Street
Year Built: 1936
Significant for its association with Italian American cultural heritage and for its Art Deco style architecture

Transamerica Pyramid
600 Montgomery Street
Year Built: 1976
Significant for its Brutalist architecture designed by architect of merit William Pereira & Associates

Nam Kue School
755 Sacramento Street
Year Built: 1925
Significant for its association with Chinese cultural heritage as the original headquarters of the Rock Yam Benevolent Society and later as the earliest and longest surviving school preserving Chinese culture and language in America

Chinese Telephone Exchange
748 Washington Street
Year Built: 1909
Significant for its association with Chinese cultural heritage as the only Chinese telephone exchange in the United States

Old First Presbyterian Church
1751 Sacramento Street
Year Built: 1911
Significant for its Romanesque Revival architecture by U.C. Berkeley architecture professor William Charles Hays

San Francisco
Supervisoral Districts

THANK YOU

San Francisco
Planning

San Francisco Planning
www.sfplanning.org

Landmark Designation Program
sfplanning.org/landmark-designation-program

District 3 Supervisor Danny Sauter

1 Dr Carlton B. Goodlett Place
City Hall, Room 244
San Francisco, CA 94102

(415) 554-7450
SauterStaff@sfgov.org

SF Planning

Shannon Ferguson
49 South Van Ness Ave
Suite 1400
San Francisco, CA 94103

(628) 652-7354
shannon.ferguson@sfgov.org