Pursuant to Charter, Section 4.101(a)(1), please state how your qualifications represent the communities of interest, neighborhoods, and the diversity in ethnicity, race, age, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, types of disabilities, and any other relevant demographic qualities of the City and County of San Francisco:

I am a San Francisco native and raised here for most of my life. I lived in the Bayview, Fillmore, and Sunnydale communities. As an African American woman who was formerly incarcerated, I represent African Americans who are disproportionately impacted by incarceration and reentry. I work at Glide Foundation in social services in the Tenderloin neighborhood with a large post-release population of men and women. I work with people that come here to live post-release that are on parole or probation. I was also formerly incarcerated where I served 22 months in prison and 1 year in county jail, and am also in recovery from drugs and alcohol for 11 years. I graduated from Walden House in 2005. Ten years later in May 2015, I successfully graduated from City College San Francisco as a Drug and Alcohol Counselor.

Business and/or professional experience:

During my 11 years here at Glide I have held many different staffing positions: Security Monitor, Client Advocate, Family Case Manager and was host of Speak Out for 4 years. I am currently a Case Manager in Glide's Walk In Center and specifically focus on supporting the reentry population to stabilize and thrive. As Case Manager I serve a diverse population which I assist with goal planning, treatment options and assessments, housing assistance, basic needs, and connecting with primary care and mental health services. The Walk In Center served 2,964 unduplicated clients with 9,184 units of service in the fiscal year 2014-2015. In addition, to my role in the Walk-In Center, I also facilitate a Recovery Circle twice weekly for men and women who struggle with drug use and other addictions and provide them with individual counseling as needed. I have jail clearance and visit County Jail #2 every Monday to facilitate reentry support for women who will be exiting soon. I often correspond with incarcerated individuals who send us letters inquiring about services and support from prisons all over California, and many connect with me upon release.

Civic Activities:

I supported the Division of Adult Probation Operations West Bay PACT programming. I attended orientations meetings every Tuesday for 2 years and presented Glide and community-wide resources and information to individuals exiting prison.

Honorable Katy Tang
Board of Supervisors
San Francisco City Hall
1 Carlton B. Goodlett Place #244
San Francisco, CA 94102

Dear Supervisor Tang,

It is with great honor and unwavering support that I submit this letter of support for Angela Coleman's appointment to the Reentry Council. Angela is currently employed at the Glide Foundation as a Case Manager/Facilitator a full-time position. Angela's story is one of perseverance, tenacity and the indomitable spirit of a human being.

Angela's resurrection from the depths of drug addiction and incarceration is a story of hope that allows everyone who hears it to be hopeful about their life. Angela has worked from being a client of the services of Glide to working on the front line of security services, facilitating recovery groups and now a Case Manager/Facilitator.

Angela continues to work on her sobriety after graduating from Walden House in 2005 and 2015 she graduated from City College San Francisco as a Drug and Alcohol Counselor.

As a former Assistant District Attorney for the City and County of San Francisco (1987-2010) I witnessed the the impact of drugs and repeated incarceration on the African-American community in San Francisco. Angela is a role model for African-Americans who like her were disproportionately the victims of the "War on Drugs" that resulted in extended incarcerations which made reentry into society nearly impossible. Angela continues to defy all of the odds and predictions of recidivism and has remained free from incarceration.

I can think of no better qualified, empathetic person to provide expert advice as a member of the Reentry Council, it is without any reservation that I urge you and the other members of the Rules Committee to unanimously vote to submit Angela's name before the full Board of Supervisors for appointment to the Reentry Council.

Grace and Peace,

Board of Supervisors City and County of San Francisco Rules Committee
c/o Supervisor Katy Tang, Supervisor Malia Cohen and Supervisor Eric Mar
1 Dr. Carlton B. Goodlett Place, Room 244
San Francisco, CA 94102

Dear Supervisor Tang, Supervisor Cohen and Supervisor Mar,

On behalf of the GLIDE community, we are honored to provide our letter of strong support for Ms. Angela Coleman for her application for the Reentry Council of the City & County of San Francisco. Since 2005, Ms. Coleman has been employed with GLIDE and is a beloved member of the GLIDE family. She has served as a critical force in GLIDE's mission, programs and culture through her knowledgeable, deeply sensitive, and solution-driven approach to helping San Francisco's most marginalized and disenfranchised communities make meaningful changes in their lives as they struggle to break cycles of poverty, hunger, violence and addiction.

We have proudly witnessed her growth as a leader and her profound understanding of personal transformation. Ms. Coleman is a San Francisco native, born and raised across San Francisco's Bayview, Fillmore and Sunnysdale communities. Formerly incarcerated, in recovery from drugs and alcohol for the past 12 years, and a survivor of sexual abuse, she has deeply committed her life to healing, recovery and the reintegration of the lives of people who are incarcerated and formerly incarcerated. She currently serves as GLIDE's Walk-In Center's Case Manager working closely with the Tenderloin's post-release population of men and women on parole and/or probation.

She is fierce and fearless, and in fact, most determined to meet the needs of those we serve. Recognizing that each individual may walk through our doors with a lifetime of trauma, she skillfully relates with each person providing great empathy, respect and dignity with a unique understanding of our common need to give and receive. GLIDE is a place where we are all in recovery, and we celebrate one another's powerful journey of vulnerability and transformation. We believe Ms. Coleman approaches the adversity and challenges in her life with every intention to improve and better serve San Francisco.

She has been long respected and held in high esteem for her steadfastness in regards to the issues of hunger, poverty, recovery and violence in our communities; we wholeheartedly recommend Ms. Angela Coleman's appointment to the Reentry Council of the City & County of San Francisco. She represents the power and courage of transformation in her individual story as well as a contributing member of this beloved community of GLIDE and San Francisco.

Subject: Letter of Recommendation: Angela Coleman (Reentry Council of the City & County of San Francisco)

Dear Supervisor Tang, Supervisor Cohen and Supervisor Mar,

I am honored to write each of you in support of Angela Coleman, a candidate for the open seat on the Reentry Council of the City & County of San Francisco.

Angela Coleman is a woman who deeply inspires and provides great insight into the human spirit of resilience; she is a personal shero and colleague of mine at the GLIDE Foundation for the past 11 years. I have personally experienced her deep compassion and care for San Francisco's diverse and most challenging populations. She has mentored me in the art of active listening and daring to share your story. She has been deeply instrumental in helping individuals who often feel voiceless, invisible and forgotten feel seen, heard and supported as they move through the system. Through her empathetic embrace, we have witnessed hundreds of individuals make meaningful changes in their lives as they re-enter and reintegrate from lives of incarceration to mainstream society.

With a deep understanding of the human condition and a core commitment to GLIDE's values and mission, I highly recommend Angela Coleman for your kind consideration. I have no doubt she will serve the citizens of San Francisco with great passion and integrity on the Reentry Council of the City & County of San Francisco.

Thank you in advance for your consideration.

To Whom It May Concern:

This is a letter of support for Jose Bernal Jimenez, a candidate for the San Francisco Reentry Council and an employee of Hospitality House.

Hospitality House is a community center for San Francisco's Tenderloin neighborhood and Sixth Street corridor, providing opportunities for personal growth and self-determination to homeless people and others in need. The agency's mission is to build community strength by advocating policies and rendering services which foster self-sufficiency and cultural enrichment. We encourage self-help, mutual respect, and increased self-esteem. The goal of these efforts is to make the heart of San Francisco a better place for us all. Hospitality House has six programs. The Tenderloin Self-Help Center and Sixth Street Self-Help Center are behavioral health-based community centers that provide a range of emergency and support services using a low-threshold, peer-based, self-help model. The Shelter Program is a small men's dormitory that provides basic emergency shelter as well as one-on-one case management. The Community Arts Program is a unique space where individuals can create, house and sell artwork, offering open studio hours, workshops, a creative writing class, and an opportunity for artists to exhibit and sell their work. The Community Building Program includes a peer volunteer training program, program activities, and the Healing, Organizing & Leadership Development Program which is a peer internship community organizing program for participants impacted by trauma. The Employment Program offers job readiness services, employment and training resources, and job search support through two neighborhood-based employment resources centers. All programs work together to provide a range of support, resources, and opportunities for people to achieve stability and self-sufficiency.

Jose was hired as a Bilingual Peer Advocate in October 2014, and began work at our Sixth Street Self-Help Center. Jose was very effective in this position, building a positive rapport with participants, sharing resources to support people in moving towards their goals, and effectively deescalating conflict. He subsequently interviewed as an internal candidate for the Shelter Case Manager position, and moved into that position in April 2015. He has increased his skill level, working more in-depth with individual residents to attain housing stability and other personal development, despite limited resources and San Francisco's challenging housing and economic situation. During the extended absence of the Shelter Manager, Jose has taken on additional interim manager duties from January 2016 to the present, with more of a leadership and coordination role.

Throughout his time at Hospitality House, Jose has been well-respected by participants, staff and management. He is bilingual and bicultural, comfortable providing services in both English and Spanish. He has participated in community building activities, providing a salsa dance exhibition on Leavenworth Street during a Four Corner Friday activation. Jose is dedicated to his work and provides services with compassion, dignity and respect, weaving in his own personal experience and history of incarceration, to offer a message of hope and possibility for everyone, particularly those returning to the community from incarceration.

Hospitality House would like to express its support for Jose as an excellent candidate for the Reentry Council. We understand that this is a competitive process, and we believe that Jose has a lot to offer if he is selected for the program. Please contact me at 415-749-2132 or jcollins@hospitalityhouse.org if I can be of any more assistance.

To Whom It May Concern,

Please accept this letter as enthusiastic support for Jose Bernal-Jimenez and his appointment to a seat on the Reentry Council. I am acquainted with Mr. Bernal-Jimenez through my position as a therapist at Hospitality House. We often collaborate in our work with the residents of the shelter program, where he is employed as a case manager and interim program manager.

Throughout our interactions I have found Mr. Bernal-Jimenez to be a professional, compassionate and reliable colleague. He is trusted and respected by both residents and staff. Mr. Bernal-Jimenez has fearlessly reflected on his own incarceration and the contributing factors. He has transformed his past experience into self-awareness and community commitment. He has dedicated himself to the community where he was raised by serving and advocating tirelessly for the program participants, many of whom share his history of incarceration.

Jose Bernal-Jimenez would make the ideal candidate for a seat on the Reentry Council due to his combination of personal experience, professional perspective, and community involvement. In addition, he would be adept in navigating the complexities of the inclusion of multiple stakeholders included in the Reentry arena.

Thank you,

Reentry Council

To whom it may concern,

My name is Cassandra Terry and I am writing to you in support of Jose Bernal Jimenez. I met Jose in early 2009 and have had the pleasure of being his girlfriend for the past 7 years. When I first met Jose, I was immediately impressed by his character and dedication to his community. He was working two jobs, supporting his family, and actively participating in the Deputy Sheriffs' Association and the Latino Peace Officers' Association. He was the only person I knew who followed local politics and lived his duty as an informed citizen every day. I fell in love with a young man who wanted to give the very best of himself to his city.

Jose and I had been dating for close to two years when he made a decision that changed both of our lives forever. After the initial shock of seeing someone who had built his life around upholding the law suddenly in orange and handcuffs, I knew I was faced with a choice. I also knew that choice depended very much on my read of Jose and his future. As I looked at the man I loved through glass, a man who was personally and professionally shattered by guilt, I decided that he was not going to be defined by his worst moment. I decided that I would watch and support as he rebuilt his life and knew that if anyone could, he would.

Jose started rebuilding himself personally and professionally while still in jail. He voraciously read anything he could get his hands on, but specifically loved philosophy. Every week at visits, we discussed how he would frame his life around service to repair the harm that he had inflicted. When he was released, Jose immediately started searching for work. Though he was fully qualified and had experience in many fields, his record made this search very difficult. However, within months of the Fair Chance Ordinance, Jose found a job serving the homeless population of this city.

Something has clicked since Jose was first introduced to the great mission of this council. A man who is devoted to exploring and overcoming the challenges facing the homeless and reentry population could only be enlivened by a forum like the one provided by this council. His perspective is unique, especially given his background on both sides of law enforcement. His approach is calm and measured, but grounded in his exemplary reputation personally and professionally in the Tenderloin District. His talents, passion and drive would be an asset to this council; the loss of which would be a disservice to our city. Jose's a young man who is giving the very best of himself to his city and can only do more.

Warm regards,

Cassandra Terry

Re: Reentry Council Seat

To Whom It May Concern:

I have had the pleasure of supervising Jose Bernal in his position as our full-time, weekday overnight program monitor at Swords to Plowshares' Safe Haven program since September 23rd, 2015. He is responsible for maintaining the safety of our building and its Veteran inhabitants, many of whom are actively using drugs and alcohol while also suffering the effects of unmedicated mental illness. These issues can be especially challenging on Jose's shift in the middle of the night, and compounded by our location in the Tenderloin. Many of our Veterans, if not most, have been through jail and prison, are on probation or parole, and some are also registered sex offenders.

Jose has proven to have expertise in crisis intervention and de-escalation techniques, and I consider myself extremely lucky to be supervising an employee of his caliber. He takes his job and his duties very seriously, and demonstrates a very high level of professionalism. He approaches his interactions with our clients with a sense of compassion and empathy, responds to emergencies with poise and calm, and communicates well with me and his co-workers. Additionally, his written communication skills are superb.

It is clear to me that Jose is a strong advocate for those who have been involved in the criminal justice system, would take a role on the reentry council seriously and professionally, and would represent the council very well. Please don't hesitate to contact me with any questions.

Sincerely,

To the San Francisco Reentry Council:

I am writing to offer a strong reference for Jose Bernal who is applying to serve on the San Francisco Reentry Council. I have known Jose since January 2015 when he was admitted into Project ReMADE, an entrepreneurship boot camp run by the Stanford Criminal Justice Center at Stanford Law School. To be accepted, individuals must have a viable business idea; be out of prison or jail for at least a year; be employed or in school; and provide at least two professional references. Jose successfully graduated from the program in May 2015, having completed all of the requirements, including attending over 40 hours of classes, writing a business plan, and presenting his plan to a panel of microenterprise development organizations at a completion ceremony attended by over 100 people. Three mentors worked closely with Jose throughout the course of the Project ReMADE classes: a Stanford Law School student, a Stanford Graduate School of Business student, and a Silicon Valley business executive. Each of them has spoken of their respect for and admiration of Jose, his work ethic, and tenacity.

During the course of the class, I had the opportunity to get to know Jose's character. He is hard working, responsible, kind, and committed to a future as a productive member of society. Jose works at two non-profit organizations to assist homeless and veterans, Hospitality House and Swords-to-Plowshares. He takes great pride in his work, seeing the humanity in each of the clients with whom he interacts. He respects his colleagues and supports their ideas and success, a quality that would serve him well on the Reentry Council.

Through my professional experiences, I have known many individuals with recent and past involvement in the criminal justice system. Jose stands out to me as someone who is deeply motivated and committed to changing his life in myriad positive ways. He has a significant support system anchoring him. Having the opportunity to serve on the San Francisco Reentry Council will assist him in this journey and facilitate his further successful reentry.

Please don't hesitate to contact me if I can provide any additional information. I can be reached at dmukamal@law.stanford.edu or (650) 724-5786.

Dear Supervisor Tang:

Hospitality House is pleased to submit this letter of recommendation on behalf of Ms. Windy Click, to serve as a member of the San Francisco Reentry Council.

Ms. Click currently works as a Community Organizing Peer Advocate at Hospitality House. We are a community center in the City's Tenderloin neighborhood, based in San Francisco's central city area for nearly 50 years.

Even while incarcerated, Windy Click devoted herself to rebuilding her life, setting herself on a forward path, and serving as a role model for other inmates. She facilitated discussion and support groups for other inmates, and became an active and valued member of the CA Coalition of Women Prisoners—a statewide network of current and formerly incarcerated women prisoners, attorneys, and criminal justice advocates.

Upon release, Windy has spoken out passionately and forthrightly for meaningful reforms of California's criminal justice system. At Hospitality House, Windy leads discussion groups for men, women and transgender residents, is a much sought after advocate for affordable housing, and helps develop true community-driven solutions to community issues such as public safety.

Windy Click is an incredible asset for our agency, brings a unique and invaluable perspective to our programs, and inspires her peers and program participants as an example of the Hospitality House peer-based model.

Windy Click would be an invaluable addition to the San Francisco Reentry Council, we are pleased to enthusiastically recommend her, and all of us at Hospitality House are honored to work alongside her. Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

My perspective on the criminal justice system is unique; I was once a sworn municipal police officer (for a city in the East Bay) who ultimately succumbed to addiction and turned to crime. This choice in life resulted in a four year period of incarceration in the Federal Bureau of Prisons. Upon release, and without resources, I quickly returned to active addiction.

This life style immersed me in practices inconsistent with finding a new way to live. When I was done, I chose to seek out those community based resources that could help me recover and choose a new path. Now with 12 years in recovery, my mission in life has been made clear: to assist those returning to us; providing those resources needed to never return to incarceration if they don't want to.

Having recently moved to the area, I clearly see that what I bring to the table could help guide the conversation on how best to provide for those returning to us. San Francisco is on the cutting edge of reentry in this Nation. Taking what we know works from other areas, and applying that to a new perspective and approach, is how we can make the difference and reduce recidivism.

- Actively involved with the The American Foundation for Suicide Prevention activities in the Bay Area.

Board of Supervisors City and County of San Francisco Rules Committee
c/o Supervisor Katy Tang, Supervisor Malia Cohen and Supervisor Eric Mar
1 Dr. Carlton B. Goodlett Place, Room 244
San Francisco, CA 94102

Dear Supervisor Tang, Supervisor Cohen and Supervisor Mar,

This communication is in support of the appointment of Angela Coleman who has submitted her application for the Reentry Council of the City & County of San Francisco.

Ms. Coleman is a true daughter of San Francisco and has shown an incomparable dedication to the incarcerated populations of the Bay Area and beyond. Ms. Coleman's personal journey has been a long and painful one. But through her own triumph, and her commitment to telling her story, she has supported countless individuals both during their incarceration as well as afterward. Ms. Coleman is a regular visitor of local prisons and maintains correspondence with several incarcerated individuals, offering them emotional support, as well as providing resources and information post-release. As a Case Worker for the GLIDE Foundation, Ms. Coleman is also able to connect formerly incarcerated populations with food, housing, physical and mental health referrals and more.

It is my honor to recommend Angela Coleman for your consideration. She is an outstanding community leader in San Francisco, and she will be a wonderful addition to the Reentry Council of the City & County of San Francisco.

Thank you for your consideration,
