Career Highlights:

Over 20 years of experience leveraging philanthropic resources across local, regional and national sectors toward achieving sustainable change in a broad cross-section of constituencies. I have worked for two mayors, a member of the U.S. House of Representatives and the Vice-President and the President of the United States. These opportunities have gifted me the experience to know how to translate vision into policy; dreams into appropriations; and disparate voices into coalitions. Finally, I have broad experience in managing people and resources for I have oversaw three not-for-profits and countless volunteers and know the value of communication when it comes to achieving long and short range goals and objectives.

Professional Experiences:

Senior Vice President Wells Fargo
Community Relations and Outreach Regional Director Northern and Central California
2013-Present

Manage programmatic goals and Community Relations strategy for Wells Fargo Home Mortgage for Northern and Central California; collaborate across functions with Governmental Affairs, Banking, Community Development, Legal, Communications, and the Wells Fargo Foundation to provide community resources; supported Wells Fargo's support of increasing the well-being of underserved people through the following strategies: financial literacy, financial inclusion policies, savings programs and home ownership; maintain internal and external relationships to enhance the reputation within communities, philanthropy, and government; and act as spokesperson and thought leader for the company.

Senior Program Manager for the Americas Levi Strauss Foundation
2010-2012 San Francisco, California

Managed programmatic goals and strategies for the Foundation's grantmaking priorities and program in the Americas; collaborated across functions with Governmental Affairs, Social Environment and Sustainability Teams, Global Sourcing, Corporate Affairs (Community Investment Teams), Corporate Communications and Human Resources to maximize employee volunteerism and corporate social responsibility alignment; supported the Foundation's mission to advance the rights and well being of underserved people through the following strategies: promoting the rights and well-being of workers, addressing HIV/AIDS stigma and discrimination, and reducing poverty by providing asset building opportunities (financial literacy, financial inclusion policies, savings programs and entrepreneurship); maintained internal and external relationships to enhance the reputation of the parent company within communities, philanthropy, and government; and acted as spokesperson and thought leader for the Foundation.

Director, Office of Intergovernmental Affairs Mayor Ronald V. Dellums
2007 - 2010 Oakland, California

Served as a senior policy advisor to the Mayor; created policy strategies and partnered with local public officials, the State Legislature, and the Federal government on legislative priorities (Education, Sustainability, Financial Literacy- Asset Building, Affordable Housing, Work Force Development, and Labor); promoted public/private partnerships with communities, businesses, and philanthropic organizations; coordinated state and federal appropriations, authorizations, and grants processes; directed the hiring and managing of the state and federal lobbyists in Sacramento and Washington, D.C; worked with the Port of Oakland to enhance its economic health and promoted its social and sustainability efforts in the local community and with labor; served as Protocol Officer and coordinated international meetings and partnerships with foreign dignitaries; managed the city's Sister Cities Program; and led city-wide employee volunteerism activities (AIDS Walk San Francisco and East Bay, PRIDE Parade, MLK Freedom Center).

Director of Boards and Commissions Mayor Gavin Newsom's Office of Governmental Affairs
2007 San Francisco, California

Served as the Mayor's liaison to all San Francisco's Commissions, Boards, and Authorities; facilitated the appointments of community leaders to these governing bodies. Responsibilities included engaging neighborhood groups, building relationships with community leaders, monitoring actions of the commissions, and briefing the Mayor and senior staff on policy developments; and collaborating on public policy projects related to governmental affairs, community relations, and public/private partnerships.

Deputy District Director/Grants Manager
2004 - 2006

U.S. Congresswoman Barbara Lee
East Bay, California

Managed the Congressional Office and the development of the Congresswoman's policy priorities; primary policy areas included: the Environment, Education, Housing, Financial Literacy, Poverty, Civic Participation/Voting, HIV/AIDS, Workers Rights, and the Conflict in the Middle East. Strengthened relationships with key community groups (Latino, Labor, Native American, Arab American, Jewish, African American, and LGBT); designed and implemented the Grants Programs for the 9th Congressional District, including the development of public/private partnerships with public agencies, philanthropic organizations, nonprofits, labor, faith-based, and the business communities; represented the Congresswoman at meetings, rallies, and hearings, and in labor negotiations; led the Office's Employee Volunteer Program (AIDS Walk San Francisco & East Bay, PRIDE Parade, Mentoring at MLK Freedom Center and Youth Uprising).

Presidential Appointments:

Policy Advisor
1996-1999

Executive Office of the President and Vice President

Authority:

Board of Supervisors Ordinance No. 215-12; AB 1484.

Board Qualifications:

The Successor Agency Commission shall consist of five members appointed by the Mayor, subject to confirmation by a majority of this Board of Supervisors. The member appointed to Seat 1 shall be a resident of the supervisorial district that includes the largest amount of cumulative area of the Major Approved Development Projects. The member appointed to Seat 2 shall be a resident of the supervisorial district that includes the second largest amount of cumulative area of the Major Approved Development Projects. The members appointed to Seats 3, 4 and 5 need not reside in any specific supervisorial district. Each of the members shall serve for a term of four years. Each member of the Commission shall be a resident of the City and County of San Francisco.

Board of Supervisors Ordinance No. 215-12 delegates to the Successor Agency Commission (the "Commission") the authority (excluding authority as to Housing Assets to: (1) Act in place of the former commission of the dissolved Redevelopment Agency to implement, modify, enforce and complete the surviving redevelopment projects, including, without limitation, the Major Approved Development Projects, the Retained Housing Obligations, and all other enforceable obligations, except for those enforceable obligations for affordable housing transferred to the City and placed under the jurisdiction of the Mayor's Office of Housing; provided, however, that the Successor Agency Commission shall not modify the Major Approved Development Projects or the Retained Housing Obligations in any manner that would decrease the commitment of property tax revenue for affordable housing or materially change the obligations to provide affordable housing without obtaining the approval of the Board of Supervisors and any required approval of the Oversight Board. (2) Approve all contracts and
