Since moving here in 1972, I have lived in the Haight, Noe Valley, Western Addition, Western SOMA, and West of Twin Peaks. Throughout that time, I have primarily traveled as a MUNI rider, pedestrian and bicyclist, striving to promote healthy transportation and lifestyle choices that serve people of all economic classes, ages, ethnicities, and gender/sexual orientation. While I arrived with no assets, and grew up sometimes homeless, San Francisco has served as a place of great opportunity. I continue feel a responsibility to give back, and to that end, have served in a wide range of volunteer positions. In my role as chair of the Bicycle Advisory Committee for a decade, I have used the position to balance my advocacy for bicycling with the concerns and desires of others who share our streets, especially seniors like me, children like my grandchildren, the disabled and transportation challenged, and women who have suffered from discrimination and cultural exclusion in their home cultures.
