Subject: Sunset Chinese Cultural District

This message is from outside the City email system. Do not open links or attachments from untrusted sources.

Dear Sir/Madam:

I am writing against the proposal of “Sunset Chinese Cultural Center.” My wife and I are 44 year residents of Outer Sunset and registered voters.

- 1) To favor one group over others in District 4 will be divisive. Affirming Chinese Americans will very likely alienate other groups and trigger more racism. We must make District 4 welcoming to all.
- 2) Supervisor Mar should, and must work on public safety, clean streets, and efficient permit processing. These are the universal needs of businesses and residents, Chinese Americans and others.
- 3) We already have an established Chinatown with myriad cultural resources. Why re-invent the wheel? Chinatown is showing signs of recovery from the shutdown, and several new businesses are starting. We should channel our support over there.

Thank you for your attention.

Sincerely,
Louis Chan
