President David Chiu
City Hall
1 Dr. Carlton B. Goodlett Pl.
San Francisco, CA 94102

Dear President Chiu and members of the Board,

I would like to convey my support for re-naming Merchant alley as "Harold Bud Moose Lane" in San Francisco.

Bud Moose had a remarkable career and was a generous contributor to the City's civic life. He was a special friend to the Chinese community. One of Bud Moose's proudest achievements was the development of the 27-story Hilton Hotel (formerly the Holiday Inn) and the Chinese Culture Center on Kearny Street adjacent to Merchant Street.

It is appropriate for the City to support an honorary naming of "Harold 'Bud' Moose Lane" in recognition of his valued contributions to the City of San Francisco and the community of North Beach.

Sincerely,

Subject: Support for Renaming Alleys

Dear Supervisors - David, Jane & Scott:

Although I will not be in town for the long awaited renaming of the three Chinatown/North Beach Alleys, I wanted to write you this email letter of support for the proposed alleys: Old Chinatown Land to its former name honoring "Donaldina CAMERON" alley; Bartol alley to "ENID NG LIM" alley and Merchant alley next to the Hilton for BUD MOOSE (Geoff's mentor).

I personally met Ms. Cameron in my late teen years at Cameron House where I have worked at as a pastor & youth director... and last year, a new book on her life was written acknowledging her courageous work in old Chinatown when many girls were sold into indentured servant hood, prostitution... She helped to create one of the first Asian Women's Shelter in the country at Cameron House.

Regarding, Cameron Alley, (Old Chinatown Lane), The board and staff asked me if the alleyway could be renamed from old Chinatown lane to acknowledge the work of Ms. Cameron and Cameron House in time for their February 8, 2014 celebration of 140 years of service to the community.

Regarding Enid -- I knew and loved her very much as my co-worker. I knew Enid Lim at Cameron House, the Presbyterian Church in Chinatown and as my colleague working at Chinatown CDC. She really was like the "mom" in our young team of organizers & planners at CCDC back in the '90s. Her wisdom and ability to relate to so many people city wide astounded us young activist back then. She knew everyone -- from Nob Hill to City Hall folks to everyone in Chinatown.

In the 1990s, I got to co-emcee the Chinese New Year Parade with her every year... and as I still emcee the review stand, I always think of her.

She pulled together many collaborations working on "clean streets & alleyways" to "historic preservation". She led both Chinatown TRIP and the Chinatown Environmental Control Task Force...

She has unselfishly worked for the community's & San Francisco's interest for so many decades... This renaming is so "right" for her.

After Enid passed away, we at CCDC have always hoped for an opportunity to honor her legacy and it is quite appropriate that we honor her at Bartol alley for a number of reasons: She helped to save 1000 Montgomery for the Community and afterwards - On Lok located there where she lived during her last year of life. On top of that, she was part of CCDC when we worked to renovate that particular Alley.

Although I did not know Harold Bud Moose, I know Geoff Palermo who owns the Hilton and Geoff has been so generous to the Chinatown Community. He is very community minded and is now working well with the Chinese Cultural Center whose executive director Mabel Teng recently told me -- is also endorsing the renaming of Merchant Alley.

Thank you President Chiu for paving the way through these renaming resolutions to honor these heroes.

RE: Harold 'Bud' Moose Lane

Dear Honorable President David Chiu:

This letter expresses my strong support of adding "Harold 'Bud' Moose Lane" to Merchant Street. This action honors the man, who, during the late 1960's, played an important and significant role in the creation of the Chinese Culture Center as part of the agreement to build the former Holiday Inn Hotel in San Francisco's Chinatown/Financial District. Today, the community benefits from the use of this 20,000 square feet of space, which was remodeled to a first-class facility a few years ago.

Throughout his life, Mr. Moose was a steadfast supporter of the Center. He attended many exhibitions, gave generously, and promoted the Center's work. I also had the great privilege and pleasure of knowing Mr. Moose for over twenty years. Early on, he established his organization as a "responsible corporation."

Mr. Moose's incredible human spirit continues to influence those who followed him. Our community is very blessed to have had Bud Moose as an advocate and friends. Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Respectfully yours,

RE: Support to Add "Harold 'Bud' Moose Lane" to Merchant Street

Dear Supervisor Chiu:

The Chinese Chamber of Commerce supports the proposal to add "Harold 'Bud' Moose Lane" to Merchant Street and urges the Land Use and Economic Development Committee to approve such proposal.

Mr. Moose, a San Franciscan had shown remarkable vision in developing the former Holiday Inn and the Chinese Cultural Center in Chinatown. The Chinese Cultural Center especially serves as a monumental component in the Chinatown community.

It is only fitting that Mr. Moose should be recognized for his extraordinary efforts in creating these long standing establishments by honoring him with a street name as a reflection to where it began.

RE: Support to Add Harold 'Bud' Moose Lane to Merchant Street

Dear Supervisor Chiu and Members of the Board of Supervisors:

On behalf of Community Tenants Association, I write to express our strong support for adding Harold 'Bud' Moose Lane to Merchant Street and respectfully request your approval on this proposal. Mr. Moose, a San Franciscan, had shown remarkable vision in developing the former Holiday Inn and the Chinese Cultural Center in Chinatown. The Chinese Cultural Center especially serves as a monumental component in the Chinatown community.

Founded in 1987, the Community Tenants Association is the largest community based tenant group in San Francisco. With over 1100 members, CTA advocates for the interest of our community; including tenant rights, preservation of affordable housing, protection of existing tenants from displacements and to raise awareness on civil rights issues and housing legislations.

Under the leadership of Mr. Geoffrey Palermo, Chinatown had benefitted from the Hilton Hotel's generous support to the community over the years. The Hilton sponsored many Chinatown events; donated generously to low-income Chinatown residents during the holidays as well as supporting non-profit organizations that serves the Chinatown community. Most recently, the Hilton Hotel had provided temporary shelter to an evicted Chinese family and kept them from being homeless during the winter season.

We urge you to support the proposal to change the name of Merchant Street to 'Harold 'Bud' Moose Lane', as Mr. Moose should be honored for his extraordinary efforts in creating San Francisco establishments that serves the community in so many ways. Thank you very much for your continuing leadership and support.

RE: Naming of Harold "Bud" Moose Lane

Dear Supervisor Chiu:

The 12,000 members of UNITE HERE Local 2 include the workers at the San Francisco Hilton Financial District, a hotel built by Harold "Bud" Moose. We are aware of Mr. Moose's many other contributions to San Francisco, including the construction of the Chinese Culture Center.

The current ownership of the hotel is Justice Investors, which Harold "Bud" Moose founded. Justice Investors has been a supporter of Local 2, and is proud that their hotel is a union property. This is important to them and to the legacy that Mr. Moose left in this community. As a union which supports the positive community efforts of its union employers, we endorse the effort to rename Merchant Lane in Harold "Bud" Moose's honor.

Thank you for your time and attention to this important matter.

Supervisors Wiener, Kim and Chiu,

I am writing to express Mayor Lee's support for the resolutions renaming three streets in Chinatown after Donaldina Cameron, Harold 'Bud' Moose and Enid Ng Lim for their many contributions to the Chinatown neighborhood and the City of San Francisco.

Donaldina Cameron devoted her life to helping immigrant Asian women who were vulnerable upon their arrival to the United States. In 1874, she created a foundation to help Asian women who were victims of discrimination and violence. That organization has since grown into a multi-service agency which serves Chinatown's low income residents.

Harold 'Bud' Moose was a commercial real estate developer whose proudest achievement was the development of a 27-story hotel and Chinese Cultural Center. The cultural center, which was established in 1973, provides a space for art, education, and community engagement.

Enid Ng Lim fought tirelessly for the improvement of transportation in our city. Her advocacy for the most under-served areas in our city led to the creation of new bus routes and improved paratransit accessibility.

These three San Franciscans contributed to the success of our City and are well deserving of these honors. Mayor Lee urges the Board of Supervisors to approve these resolutions.

Hello Alisa,

I hope that you are doing well and enjoying the holidays.

It was brought to my attention that three honorary street name resolutions are going to the Land-Use committee today. I just want to take a moment to remind you that DPW does not have anything to do with these honorary names due to the fact that nothing official changes (DPW basemap, emergency services, US mail, etc. all continue to use the original and official street name). DPW does not receive an application and therefore does not circulate these types of honorary naming.

Since DPW has not processed these resolutions I do not intend to be present at the hearing. Feel free to contact me if you need any info from me or my department.
