[Police Code - Required Agreements Between Cannabis Businesses and Labor Organizations]

Ordinance amending the Police Code to require applicants for Cannabis Business Permits to enter into either a Labor Peace Agreement or a collective bargaining agreement with a Bona Fide Labor Organization.

Existing Law

Existing law requires an applicant for a cannabis business permit to demonstrate that it will enter into a labor peace agreement, unless it has fewer than ten employees. Existing law does not necessarily require an applicant to have already entered into a labor peace agreement—or any other labor agreement with its employees—before a permit is issued, however.

Amendments to Current Law

This ordinance would require an applicant for a cannabis business permit to have entered into either a labor peace agreement or a collective bargaining agreement before the permit is issued, unless the applicant has fewer than ten employees
