11
12 WHEREAS, Despite comprising 51 percent of the population, women compromise 13 only 20 percent of elected representatives in the Senate and House of Representatives; and

14 WHEREAS, Women are severely underrepresented in private sector leadership roles, 15 comprising only 20 percent of technology industry executive teams and only four percent of 16 Fortune 500 company heads; and

17 WHEREAS, Women are severely underrepresented in the media, comprising 14 18 percent of people interviewed on Sunday News Shows; and

19 WHEREAS, Studies conducted by the Massachusetts Institute of Technology and the 20 University of Washington indicate that visible representation of women in leadership positions 21 encourage and support young women’s careers and educational aspirations via the role 22 model effect; and

23 WHEREAS, Women’s historical contributions are inadequately recognized in public 24 statues, memorials, and other works of art, as demonstrated by the dearth of statues depicting

1 historical women in American cities, including New York City, Washington D.C. and San 2 Francisco; and

3 WHEREAS, It is acknowledged that the San Francisco Arts Commission has made 4 great strides towards supporting cultural equality in the arts, including gender equality, by 5 awarding 50 percent of its public art commissions to female artists; and

6 WHEREAS, The San Francisco Civic Art Collection has 585 permanently sited works, 7 and has been the recipient of 87 gifts of sculptural monuments and memorials of which only 8 two depict nonfictional women; and

9 WHEREAS, When women represent just 30 percent of the senior leadership team or 10 board, organizations start to experience a positive shift, not only in performance, but also in 11 market share that creates competitive advantages; and

12 WHEREAS, Research further suggests that 30 percent is the proportion when critical 13 mass is reached and in a group setting, the voices of the minority group become heard in their 14 own right, rather than simply representing the minority; and

15 WHEREAS, The 30 Percent Club was formed in the United Kingdom with the goal of 16 achieving a minimum of 30 percent female representation by women on boards of companies 17 listed on the London Stock Exchange's FTSE-100; and

18 WHEREAS, There is a national movement to increase female representation in the 19 public realm to 30 percent by the year 2020, the 100th anniversary of the ratification of the 19th
20 Amendment to the United States Constitution granting women the right to vote, lead by former 21 Treasurer Rios efforts to put a non-fictional woman on the U.S. currency; and

22 WHEREAS, The City and County of San Francisco should meet and exceed that 23 minimum threshold of female representation by recognizing the contribution that women have 24 made to San Francisco and the world; now, therefore, be it

1           RESOLVED, That the Board of Supervisors urges all City Departments to endeavor to 2 ensure to achieve at least 30 percent non-fiction female representation in the public realm
3 through works of art on City property, names of streets and right-of-ways, parks, public
4 buildings and Department websites and publications; and, be it

5           FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Board of Supervisors urges the Arts Commission in 6 coordination with the Library to install a statue of Dr. Maya Angelou at the Main Library as a 7 first step towards achieving the goal of 30 percent female representation in the public realm 8 and in recognition of Dr. Angelou's many accomplishments including breaking the color and 9 gender barrier by becoming San Francisco's first African American female streetcar 10 conductor, an award winning author and poet, a Presidential Medal of Freedom recipient and 11 civil rights leader; and, be it

12           FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Board of Supervisors urges the Controller to 13 establish a Category 8 fund to receive gifts, donations and contributions which may be offered 14 to the City and County for the purpose of erecting and maintaining statues of historically 15 significant women; and, be it

16           FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Board of Supervisors should consider a motion 17 amending the Board Rules to require that the annual Gender Analysis Of Commission and 18 Boards report produced by the Department on the Status of Women be part of the Committee 19 Packet considered in Rules Committee appointment hearings.
