9 Section 1. Findings. The Board of Supervisors hereby finds that June 19th is the oldest 10 known celebration of the ending of slavery, and that the Juneteenth Festival has become a 11 worldwide celebration since its inception 54 years ago. The Juneteenth Festival provides an 12 opportunity for all Americans to learn more about our common past and to better understand 13 the experiences that have shaped our nation.

14 The Board further finds that the Juneteenth Festival represents the joy of freedom and 15 the chance for a new beginning, and that San Francisco had never had a publicly organized 16 Juneteenth Festival until June 2002.

17 The Board further finds that the San Francisco Juneteenth Committee organized the 18 Juneteenth Festival of 2004 and has paid most of the incurred fees, however, the Committee 19 is seeking a waiver of the remaining fees.

20 Section 2. The Board of Supervisors hereby waives the additional police fees incurred
21 by the San Francisco Juneteenth Committee pursuant to San Francisco Administrative Code 22 Section 10B in connection with the 2004 Juneteenth Festival that have not been paid as of 23 May 24, 2005, in an amount up to two thousand five hundred and ninety seven dollars and no
24 cent ($2,597.00). The Police Department shall not collect any additional sums due as of May 25 24, 2005, but need not refund any payment already received by the City.

1 Section 3. The Board of Supervisors hereby waives the fees incurred by the San 2 Francisco Juneteenth Committee for services provided by the San Francisco Fire Department
3 in connection with the 2004 Juneteenth Festival that have not been paid as of May 24, 2005,
4 in an amount up to six hundred and nineteen dollars and no cents ($619.00). The Fire
