

[Pokémon Day - February 27, 2026]

Resolution declaring February 27, 2026, as Pokémon Day in the City and County of San Francisco; celebrating the 30th Anniversary of Pokémon; and encouraging the public to participate in Pokémon related community activities.

WHEREAS, Pokémon, also known as Pocket Monsters, is a global phenomenon enjoyed by people of all ages and backgrounds, based on a Japanese media franchise that includes video games, animated series and films, a trading card game, mobile games, books, toys, and related media; and

WHEREAS, Pokémon was created by Satoshi Tajiri and originated as an electronic games series from Nintendo that debuted in Japan on February 27, 1996, with Pokémon Green and Pokémon Red, later released in the United States as Pokémon Red and Pokémon Blue; and

WHEREAS, 2026 marks the 30th Anniversary of Pokémon, celebrating three decades of creativity, innovation, storytelling, and community building that continues to inspire generations of fans to explore, learn, and connect; and

WHEREAS, in the games, players assume the role of Pokémon Trainers, collecting creatures with the famous catchphrase "Gotta Catch 'Em All!" to complete their Pokédex, a library index of 1,025 species, while learning teamwork, strategy, and perseverance; and

WHEREAS, Pokémon emphasizes friendship, cooperation, resilience, and responsibility, encouraging players to work together and oppose exploitation, as represented by the defeat of Team Rocket and similar antagonists who exploit Pokémon for profit; and

WHEREAS, To date, there have been 23 theatrical Pokémon movies and three movie-length special episodes, more than 1,269 Glameow-rous Pokémon anime series episodes,

1 122 games, over 30 billion Pokémon cards have been sold, and over 88 billion Pokémon have 2 been caught on Pokémon GO across the world; and

3 WHEREAS, San Francisco is a city that celebrates creativity, technology, literacy, and 4 civic engagement, making it a natural home for Pokémon fans, players, creators, educators, 5 and competitors; and

6 WHEREAS, In partnership with the San Francisco Public Library, San Francisco has 7 previously celebrated Pokémon Day and Pokémon Spring Celebration Day at multiple branch 8 libraries, providing book giveaways, learning activities, art programs, and opportunities for 9 youth and families to connect through reading and play; and

10 WHEREAS, Our San Francisco library-based Pokémon events promote literacy, digital 11 learning, social connection, and intergenerational engagement, helping young residents 12 develop curiosity, confidence, and a lifelong love of learning; and

13 WHEREAS, Pokémon GO and related programs encourage residents to explore 14 neighborhoods, visit parks and public spaces, engage in physical activity, and build real-world 15 friendships, strengthening public health and community ties; and

16 WHEREAS, On August 28th through August 30, 2026, San Francisco will host 17 upcoming Pokémon Championship events, welcoming Trainers from around the world and 18 highlighting the City as a premier destination for esports, youth engagement, and cultural 19 tourism; and

20 WHEREAS, Events like these generate economic activity that is super effective for 21 local small businesses, restaurants, hotels, and neighborhood corridors, helping our local 22 economy power up and evolve; and

23 WHEREAS, Pikachu, No. 25 in the Pokédex, a yellow mouselike creature, is the 24 undisputed face of Pokémon and continues to electrify audiences worldwide while serving as 25 a symbol of optimism, curiosity, and connection; and

1 WHEREAS, It is not Farfetch'd that Pokémon has remained a vital part of popular 2 culture for past thirty years, spanning generations and bringing together residents of diverse 3 languages, cultures, and experiences; and

4 WHEREAS, Pokémon communities in San Francisco organize meetups, tournaments, 5 charity drives, and cultural celebrations that demonstrate that no Trainer succeeds alone and 6 that diversity is our strongest team; and

7 WHEREAS, As Ash Ketchum says, "I Choose You!" when calling out his Pokémon, the 8 Board of Supervisors says, "We Choose Pokémon Day in San Francisco!"; and, now, 9 therefore, be it

10 RESOLVED, That the Board of Supervisors of the City and County of San Francisco 11 hereby declares February 27, 2026, as Pokémon Day in San Francisco, in celebration of the 12 30th Anniversary of Pokémon and its lasting impact on literacy, creativity, and community;
13 and, be it

14 FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Board of Supervisors encourages residents and 15 families to visit San Francisco Public Library branches to check out Pokémon books, 16 participate in educational programming, and build friendships through mobile games, console 17 games, and trading card games; and, be it

18 FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Board of Supervisors commends the volunteers, 19 librarians, educators, organizers, and community partners who have helped train, mentor, and 20 uplift San Francisco's Pokémon community across generations; and, be it

21 FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Board of Supervisors welcomes visitors and 22 participants to upcoming Pokémon Championship events this August and encourages 23 residents to support local neighborhoods and small businesses during these celebrations;
24 and, be it

1 FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Board encourages Pokémon-related activities that 2 promote wellness, youth leadership, intergenerational connection, cultural exchange, and 3 neighborhood vitality; and, be it

4 FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Board hopes this Pokémon Day celebration will be 5 aMewsing, and Absol-utely unforgettable, giving residents a Chansey to build friendships,
6 Seaking community, and have a truly Magmar-nificent time; and, be it

7 FURTHER RESOLVED, That when San Franciscans work together, support one 8 another, and believe in the power of community, we all level up and become Champions for 9 our neighborhoods.
