4 workers to choose, free from delay and intimidation, whether to have a union through a
5 card-check neutrality agreement.

6
7 WHEREAS, In June 2008, workers of the two non-union hotels in our city, the Hyatt 8 Fisherman’s Wharf and the HEI Le Meridien, petitioned their respective general managers for 9 a fair process, free from delay and intimidation, to choose whether to have a union through a 10 check neutrality agreement; and

11 WHEREAS, After many worker pickets and community delegations, the management 12 of both hotels have rejected a card-check process; and,

13 WHEREAS, On February 24, 2009, a large number of workers at these hotels publicly 14 called for a consumer boycott of their own hotels and over 700 Local 2 members rallied and 15 marched in support of a boycott of these two hotel; and,

16 WHEREAS, Other hotels across San Francisco area have already agreed to this same 17 process including, most recently, the Four Seasons, St. Regis, and Intercontinental hotels.
18 Additionally, Hyatt has already agreed to provide this same process to workers at all new 19 hotels they open in San Francisco and San Mateo counties; and therefore be it

20 RESOLVED, That the Board of Supervisors of San Francisco urges the management
21 of the Hyatt Fisherman’s Wharf and HEI Le Meridien Hotels to honor the workers call for a 22 card-check neutrality agreement; and therefore be it
