

1 [Transcontinental Chinese Railroad Workers Day - May 10, 2025]

2
3 Resolution recognizing May 10, 2025, as Transcontinental Chinese Railroad Workers
4 Day in the City and County of San Francisco.
5

6 WHEREAS, The nearly 2,000 mile Transcontinental Railroad, which shortened travel
7 time across the United States (U.S) from six months to one week, was completed on May 10, 8 1869, when the Central Pacific Railroad Company and the Union Pacific Railroad Company 9 linked railroad tracks with a golden spike at Promontory Summit, Utah; and 10 m six months to one week, was completed on May 10, 1869, when the Central Pacific
11 Railroad Company and the Union Pacific Railroad Company linked railroad tracks with a 12 golden spike at Promontory Summit, Utah; and

13 WHEREAS, On July 1, 1862, President Abraham Lincoln signed into law the Pacific
14 Railroad Act of 1862, which authorized the Central Pacific Railroad Company to build a 15 transcontinental railroad that would link the U.S. from east to west; and

16 WHEREAS, Work began in 1863, as the Central Pacific Railroad Company started to 17 build its tracks in Sacramento moving east and the Union Pacific Railroad Company started to 18 build westward from Council Bluffs, Iowa, where railroad lines were already operating from the 19 eastern part of the country; and

20 stern part of the country; and

21 WHEREAS, For six years, the workers of both companies toiled to lay down the rail 22 beds, tracks, and other necessary infrastructure; and

23 WHEREAS, Because of difficulties in recruiting a sufficient number of workers, nearly 24 12,000 Chinese immigrants were employed by the Central Pacific Railroad Company and 25 made up more than 80 percent of its workforce; and

1 WHEREAS, Chinese workers were given the most difficult, dangerous jobs and were 2 paid lower wages than other railroad workers and nearly 1,200 Chinese railroad workers died
3 from work accidents, avalanches, and explosions while working in the Sierra Nevada 4 Mountains; and

5 WHEREAS, Chinese workers, who once set a world record when they laid 10 miles of 6 track in one day, were thought of as indispensable by their foremen and were respected for 7 their work ethic and discipline; and

8 WHEREAS, In 1865, then California Governor Leland Stanford testified to U.S.
9 Congress, "Without these Chinese Railroad Workers it would be impossible to complete the 10 Western portion of this great national enterprise"; and

11 WHEREAS, In 2014, the U.S. Department of Labor inducted the Chinese railroad 12 workers into the Labor Hall of Honor, noting that they faced prejudice, low wages and social 13 isolation, but, in spite of these challenges, they courageously took a stand to organize for 14 fairer wages and safer working conditions; and 15 rking conditions; and

16 WHEREAS, The Chinese workers' fight against unfair labor practices set an example 17 for the millions of Asian Americans who came to the United States after them; and

18 WHEREAS, It is fitting that the early contributions of the Chinese railroad workers 19 continue to be remembered and honored by San Francisco every year in May during Asian 20 American Pacific Islander Heritage Month; now, therefore, be it

21 RESOLVED, That the San Francisco Board of Supervisors recognizes May 10, 2025, 22 as Transcontinental Chinese Railroad Workers Day in San Francisco.