9 Be it ordained by the People of the City and County of San Francisco:

10 Section 1. The San Francisco Recreation and Park Department ("Rec/Park") shall 11 make its best efforts, within three months of the effective date of this legislation, to reach a 12 written agreement with the Port of San Francisco under which Rec/Park will operate and 13 maintain Port property known as Warm Water Cove Park (the "Property") for use as a park 14 that permits dogs to be off-leash on voice command. (A map of the Property is on file with the 15 Clerk of the Board in File No. 001906.) Pursuant to its agreement with the Port, Rec/Park 16 shall hold a series of public meetings to solicit public comment on proposed improvements to 17 the Property and the elements of a suitable operational plan for the Property. Rec/Park shall 18 also, after hearing public comment, make such improvements to the Property as Rec/Park's 19 General Manager deems appropriate for the operation of the Property as a park. Rec/Park 20 shall include Warm Water Cove Park in any Citywide policy that it develops with respect to 21 permitting dogs off-leash in City parks.
