

San Francisco Animal Care & Control - Film Agreement

Rules Committee
Monday, August 31, 2020

Executive Director Virginia Donohue

About SFACC

- The San Francisco Department of Animal Care & Control (SFACC) is a taxpayer-funded, open-admission animal shelter and enforces all state and local Animal Control and Welfare laws.
  - SFACC shelters homeless, neglected, and abused animals and provide humane education and many other services to the community.
  - SFACC is the local agency that investigates animal cruelty, enforces animal welfare laws, rescues injured and orphaned wildlife and birds, and aids domestic animals in distress.
  - SFACC aims to adopt, re-home, or reunite domestic animals with their guardians and to release wildlife to their native habitat.

Big Fish Entertainment Company

- Big Fish Entertainment is a full service content production company that creates documentaries and documentary series.
  - Live Rescue
  - Animal ER Live
  - America's Top Dog

SFACC Film Agreement

- Resolution authorizing SFACC to enter into a Use Agreement with Big Fish Entertainment LLC to develop and produce a documentary series “Live Rescue” about SFACC’s animal emergency rescue calls and Animal Control Officers.
- One year agreement with the right to extend the Term for an additional one year.
- Health and safety a top priority during COVID-19.

Questions?

Patricia Chang/Special to the SFGATE, Amy Corso, left, and Stephanie Pone