Victor –

Following up on/clarifying this question. While the language cited below does not excuse the need for a General Plan review by Planning, there is no need for General Plan review of the Charter Amendment in 221289. Motions adding measures to the ballot do not require General Plan review – even if they amend the Planning Code.

Let me know if you have any questions.

Anne:

Upon further review of the Charter Amendment listed above I notice the below listed language. I wanted to confirm that due to this additional I do not need a General Plan review by the Planning Department? Thanks.

(f) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 101.1, an eligible Affordable Housing Project or Increased Affordability Housing Project, as defined in Charter Section 16.126, shall be deemed to be consistent with this Section 101.1 and shall not require a separate finding of consistency with this Section 101.1.
