

MARK MILLER - BIOGRAPHY

Retired California city manager and department director with 28 years of experience overseeing all facets of business and development activities for full-service cities and city/county departments. Current volunteer Board Member at the San Francisco Presidio YMCA. Additional past public service as a board member with several community organizations, an instructor at a California county leadership institute and at a college on-line senior program.

Passionate about building community and partnering with public and private organizations to support neighborhoods and economic efforts.

Education includes Master's degree in Public Policy from the University of California, Berkeley - Goldman School of Public Policy, and a Bachelor's degree in Engineering from Lehigh University.

Favorite activities include running (enjoying the hills in two past SF marathons), hiking and exploring the wonderful neighborhoods of San Francisco with wife of 37 years.