8 WHEREAS, Questions regarding homosexuality are increasingly less taboo and young 9 people are especially interested in exploring the topic of homosexuality, and

10
11 WHEREAS, Student journalists in the Kern County-based East Bakersfield High School
12 decided to write a series of articles regarding homosexuality in their high school newspaper, 13 and

14 WHEREAS, The news series on homosexuality included an exploration of the "nature 15 versus nurture" debate, a profile on the lives of gay students on campus, an exposé of the 16 national organization, "Parents, Families and Friends of Gays and Lesbians" and an article 17 focused on opposition to homosexuality from local religious organizations; and

18
19 WHEREAS, Student editors conferred with the principal of their school, John Gibson, 20 notifying him and the school administration of the intent to publish a series of news articles on 21 current gay issues; and

22 WHEREAS, A meeting was convened between school administrators and the editorial 23 staff of the newspaper and a compromise was reached in which the school administrator
24 agreed that the articles would be allowed to be printed on the condition that the true identities 25 of gay students on campus would not be identified; and

1 WHEREAS, However, on the evening after the compromised was reached, the 2 principal rescinded authorization to publish the articles; and

3 WHEREAS, East Bakersfield High School editor Travis Mattias, and fellow journalists, 4 Maria Krauter and Joel Paramo filed a lawsuit against the principal of the school, the 5 superintendent, the school trustees and the Kern County School District; and

6 WHEREAS, The plaintiffs hope that the judge will compel school district officials to 7 publish the series of articles on current gay issues; and

8 WHEREAS, Despite opposition against their news series from their school district and 9 their school principle, the students diligently fought to publish their series; now, therefore be it

11 RESOLVED, That Board of Supervisors of the City and County of San Francisco
12 hereby commends East Bakersfield High School Journalism Department and student 13 journalists for their courage in attempting to publish a series of news articles in their school 14 newspaper on the lives of gay youth and for fighting for their first amendment rights to 15 overturn the prohibition imposed by school administrators to censor publication of the news
16 series; and be it

17 FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Board of Supervisors urges the principal of East 18 Bakersfield High School, the Kern County Superintendent, the Kern County School Trustees, 19 and the Kern County School District to rescind their censorship of first amendment rights and 20 to expedite the publication of a series of news articles to be published in the East Bakersfield
21 High School newspaper about current issues in the lives of gay American youth.
