9
10 WHEREAS, The crime of human trafficking is present in every country and every U.S.
11 state; and

12 WHEREAS, The State of California and its constituent communities are considered to 13 be receptor sites for trafficking due to economic conditions and proximity to international 14 borders; and

15 WHEREAS, Forced labor, commercial sexual exploitation and involuntary domestic 16 servitude have been found to exist within local communities; and

17 WHEREAS, The FBI has identified the San Francisco Bay Area as one of the top 13
18 sites for child sex trafficking in the country and the National Human Trafficking Hotline 19 receives more calls from California than from any other state; and

20 WHEREAS, Over 10% of the labor trafficking calls received by the National Human 21 Trafficking Hotline involve restaurant or food service industries; and

22 WHEREAS, The 2016 Super Bowl provides an opportunity for cities and counties in the 23 Bay Area to ramp up their efforts to respond to human trafficking; and

24 WHEREAS, While no definitive data exists linking the Super Bowl to increased human 25 trafficking in the regions that host the game, the Super Bowl creates an occasion to reach out

1 to industries, stakeholders, and the broader community that can play a role in combatting 2 trafficking 365 days a year; and

3 WHEREAS, The California Transparency in Supply Chain Act requires any retail or 4 manufacturing company doing business in California that has more than $100,000,000 in 5 annual gross receipts worldwide to disclose their efforts to monitor human trafficking in their 6 supply chain; and

7 WHEREAS, By engaging our hotels, restaurants, other businesses, and the general
8 public to take a stand against human trafficking, the San Francisco Bay Area can serve as a 9 model for how we can all work together to tackle human trafficking; now, therefore, be it

10 RESOLVED, That the City and County of San Francisco will use its best efforts to host 11 events at hotels that have signed on to the Code of Conduct for the Protection of Minors from 12 Sexual Exploitation in Travel and Tourism (<http://www.thecode.org>) or have enacted a similar 13 policy, including training their employees on recognizing signs of human trafficking on their 14 premises, and conducting risk analysis for human trafficking with their suppliers and 15 leveraging their purchasing power to protect the freedom of those in their supply chain; and,
16 be it

17 FURTHER RESOLVED, The City and County of San Francisco will use its best efforts 18 to host events at restaurants or other venues that have taken a stand against human 19 trafficking by training employees, displaying anti-trafficking posters, and/or conducting risk 20 analysis for human trafficking with their suppliers and leveraging their purchasing power to 21 protect the freedom of those in their supply chain; and, be it

22 FURTHER RESOLVED, The City and County of San Francisco will ensure that staff of 23 the San Francisco Police Department, District Attorney, Sheriff, Adult Probation, Juvenile 24 Probation, Public Defender, Victim Services, Child Welfare, and Public Health agencies will 25 participate in available human trafficking training by December 31, 2016.
