Business and/or Professional Experience:

Over the past 15 years, Tony Tolentino has worked in the philanthropic, non-profit, and government sectors focusing on entrepreneurship and inclusive economic development. Since 2022, he has served as a Vice President with JPMorganChase's Global Philanthropy group overseeing the bank's strategy and grantmaking portfolio for Northern California. The portfolio supports eligible nonprofits focused on building a more inclusive economy through affordable housing development, small business growth, workforce development, and financial empowerment. In 2024, he launched a new JPMC initiative focused on the revitalization of Downtown San Francisco.

Prior to his role at JPMC, he served as Chief Integration Officer with Forward Global (formerly known as The Philanthropy Workshop), a community of over 400 philanthropists and social investors committed to solving the world's most pressing social issues. As a leadership team member, he was responsible for integrating processes and information across the global organization and for working with Forward Global's key investors and stakeholders.

Before Forward Global, Tony was Vice President with the Blackstone Charitable Foundation (BCF). He was responsible for implementing the BCF's Entrepreneurship Initiative, a $60M+ philanthropic commitment to creating targeted regional programs globally to support entrepreneurs and small businesses. Before joining Blackstone, he worked at the Lower Manhattan Development Corporation, the agency created to help plan and coordinate the rebuilding and revitalization of Lower Manhattan after September 11, where he managed a portfolio of $240M+ grants to various community and cultural non-profits and city agencies.

Tony holds a Bachelor of Arts in Urban Studies & Geography from San Francisco State University and a Master of Science in Urban Planning from Columbia University.

Civic Activities:

Tony Tolentino currently serves on the Board of Directors of Future Founders, a Chicago-based nonprofit which is building the nation's largest inclusive community of intentional young entrepreneurs and entrepreneurial-minded leaders. He is also Vice Chair of the Market & Octavia Community Advisory Committee (CAC) and formerly served on the board of Tumml, a startup hub for urban tech. He is an active member of the San Francisco Bay Area Planning and Urban Research Association (SPUR).
