Board Qualifications:

The Transbay Joint Powers Authority ("TJPA") was established to design, build, and operate the Transbay Transit Center Program, which is being developed in two phases: first phase being the construction of the Transit Center for bus operations; and second phase being the development of the downtown extension of Caltrain and eventually the California High Speed Rail to the Transit Center. The TJPA is a joint exercise of powers authority created by the City and County of San Francisco, the Alameda-Contra Costa Transit District, the Peninsula Corridor Joint Powers Board, and Caltrains (ex-officio).

The TJPA is overseen by a eight (8) member board of directors (but only seven (7) voting members), with the following appointed or confirmed by the Board of Supervisors:

- > One (1) member appointed by the Municipal Transportation Agency Board of Director, confirmed by the Board of Supervisors;
- > One (1) member of the Board of Supervisors, appointed by the Board of Supervisors;
- > One (1) member with expertise in large, complex infrastructure funding, policy and/or project delivery, appointed by the Board of Supervisors; and
- > One (1) alternate member with expertise in large, complex infrastructure funding, policy and/or project delivery, appointed by the Board of Supervisors.

These members shall serve for indefinite terms, until resignation or removal by the appointing
