Dear Supervisor Yee, I am pleased to recommend Barbara Campagnoli fir the Law Enforcement seat on the San Francisco Entertainment Commission. She is a brilliant woman with many years of police experience. She is well respectec in the law enforcement community and is a third genertion San Franciscan. She understands and is committed to the hours and research that will be required of her if she is appointed to this commission. As a past San Francisco Health Commissioner for 12 years of which I served as President for 7, my support for Ms Campagnoli is not taken lightly. San Francisco city commissions create excellent opportunities for all citizens to voice their concerns and support and also help monitor city vendors and contractors. Please feel free to call me if you need additional information or have any questions. Lee Ann

Re: Nomination of Barbara Campagnoli to Entertainment Commission

Dear Supervisor Yee:

I wish to lend my full support and endorsement to the nomination of Barbara Campagnoli to the Entertainment Commission.

I have known Barbara for nearly thirty years. Our tenures in the Police Department largely overlapped and our professional paths crossed on innumerable occasions. She handled the day-to-day operations of the Police Central Permit Bureau and acted as clerk at the weekly permit hearings for over fifteen years. Barbara is smart, conscientious, diligent and caring. Her reputation within the department could not have been better. Her skills at dealing with the public are always stellar.

She has lived in the City her entire life, raised a beautiful family, and she is a delightful person. Barbara is an exemplary nominee and she will serve San Francisco with dedication and excellence.

Very truly yours,

Dear Supervisor Yee,

Greetings. My name is Ellen Scanlan. I am a native San Franciscan. I live in and serve the community in which I was raised, the Parkside District of San Francisco where I teach Special Education at Abraham Lincoln High School.

I am writing to urge you to support Ms. Barbara Campagnoli, who is seeking appointment to the Entertainment Commission of San Francisco. I have known Barbara since September, 1965 when we began our freshman year at Notre Dame des Victoires High School. The girl I knew then was a bright, active, enthusiastic leader in our school community. Barbara was a class officer, an organizer and a natural leader who was loved by all. She joined the clubs, played sports and got involved in whatever was happening and still managed to get good grades.

The woman I am so proud to call my friend today has more than fulfilled the promise of her youth. The characteristics Barbara demonstrated in school became magnified in adulthood. Her vitality and boundless zest for life are overshadowed only by her lifelong love affair with San Francisco and her desire to give back to the city she loves. After a career of dedicated service, Barbara retired from the SFPD and the first thing she did was enroll in the six-month training program to be a volunteer docent at the SF Botanical Garden. So much for "retirement"!

Barbara has a fine appreciation for how blessed we are to be able to live in and enjoy this great city and she takes advantage of San Francisco's cultural offerings. I missed The Girl with the Pearl Earring, but I bet Barbara saw it. I think she sleeps with the pink section under her pillow.

When Barbara and Fred bought their house in the Outer Richmond, many of our contemporaries were moving to Marin or down the Peninsula. I made the mistake of wondering out loud why she and Fred hadn't followed suit. I remember her words: "Ellie, this is SAN FRANCISCO! Why would I want to live anywhere else???"

When Barbara told me about her desire to serve on the Entertainment Commission, I thought about the unique combination of attributes she would bring to the position: the person she is, what she has accomplished thus far, her intimate knowledge of The City, her experience in the SFPD in conjunction with other agencies and her innate role as the ring leader. I could go on and on. Barbara is the one who gets it done. I simply cannot imagine a candidate more suited to this position and I encourage you to endorse my dear friend, Barbara Campagnoli for the Entertainment Commission of San Francisco.

Sincerely,

Ellen Scanlan

Dear Supervisor's

I wish to enthusiastically endorse the nomination of Barbara Campagnoli to the law enforcement seat of the Entertainment Commission.

As president of the Greater Geary Boulevard Merchants Association, and I have known Barbara for over twenty years, both personally and professionally. She is a Richmond District resident and native, who supports the local businesses and who is community oriented. She is a volunteer and docent at the SF Botanical Garden and she also volunteers at St. Anne's Home for the Elderly, run by the Little Sisters of the Poor on Lake Street.

Barbara was the former permit officer at Richmond Police Station acting as liaison between the business community and the Police Department. She then gained many more years of experience working with San Francisco Police Permit Bureau dealing with citywide permit issues, often in the entertainment realm.

I believe that Barbara would be a good fit for this commission and a benefit to the City. If you have any questions you may contact me at 415.517.2573.

Thank you, David

Honorable Eric Mar c/o Victor Lim

Dear Supervisor Mar,

Again, it was a pleasure meeting you at the Argonne Elementary School Garden Grand Opening and the second time at Argonne Playground, while you were canvassing for votes. I am sorry we were not able to attend your ice cream social. I confess our family's vote for you, was more that we dislike Mr. Lee, even though we are Landlords.

Today I write to you because my friend and neighbor, Barbara Campagnoli, is interested in an appointment to the San Francisco Entertainment Commission. When Barbara approached me for her support for the position, I couldn't think of a single person I thought would be better for the position than her. She understands the delicate balance between the important revenue for the City and businesses, as well as the safety issues. I believe that this is crucial to the future Super Bowl, which plans are already on their way.

I am sure her resume will show that Barbara is suited for the position, with her many years as a police officer, specifically spending time at the Permit Department. I would like to list some factors, which may not appear on a resume, but from a neighbor and friend for two decades.

1. Barbara is a native San Franciscan. She cares about our city. She attended Argonne School, so she is also a Richmond District girl.
2. While quick to help out a neighbor, she is also quick to point out when I am driving too fast on our block. It's that balance thing, I mentioned above.
3. Barbara knows most of the neighbors around us. Some might find that unusual for a City Dweller. We have discussed hosting a block party, on Halloween, to get to know our neighbors better, while attracting more Treat or Treaters to our block.
4. While discussing the block party and when we were hit with identity theft, Barbara a good grasp on how things really work in the Police Department and the City. Other candidates may be more naïve about how things work in the City.

Barbara is not a professional politician, or the child of one. She probably doesn't have any political bargaining chips or favors to call in. However, if your mind isn't already made up on who to support for the Entertainment Commission, please consider Barbara Campagnoli.

Re: Barbara Campagnoli candidate for Entertainment Commission

Dear Supervisor Yee,

As an active operator of nights clubs, San Francisco native and concerned citizen it is my pleasure to give my highest recommendation to Barbara Campagnoli for the City of San Francisco Entertainment Commission.

Barbara began her carrier in the SFPD Permit Division at about the same time that I opened my first night club (City Nights) in 1985! In those days the SFPD was responsible for issuing and policing all entertainment in the city and not only did Barbara personally accept applications for many of the night clubs I have operated over the years including Rouge, Sound Factory and Club NV she was a virtual fixture in the Permit Division until 2000. Barbara was present at every permit hearing I ever attended and whether it was a new application, amendment or even disciplinary action Barbara always conducted herself in a fare, professional and concerned manner.

There are very few people who have the experience, interest and concern as Barbara Campagnoli and in my humble opinion the entertainment community and the people of San Francisco will be very well served with her as Entertainment Commissioner.

Sincerely,
