RE: REVISED DCYF 2018-2023 Services Allocation Plan (SAP)

Please find DCYF's updated 2018-2023 Services Allocation Plan (SAP) which was heard and approved at the Budget and Finance Committee on June 16, 2017.

BACKGROUND AND MAJOR CHANGES:

After we shared our first SAP version to the public and all members of the Board of Supervisors, DCYF was asked to go back and review the data for low income Asian American children, youth and families living in San Francisco. As a result of this review, we added clarifying language under the PRIORITY POPULATION section starting on page 4 of the SAP document identifying all neighborhoods with the highest percentage of children, youth and families living below the 300% poverty level. We also add another bullet point to the graphic on page 4 under the header of "CONCENTRATED NEED." This new bullet point states, "Low-income Asian American children, youth and families."
