6
7 WHEREAS, The goal of the Department of Children, Youth and Their Families
8 (“DCYF”) is to enrich the lives and futures of the children and youth of San Francisco; and

9 WHEREAS, In an effort to continue to be at the forefront of empowering inner-city
10 youth, DCYF recently funded a youth-led evaluation, otherwise known as Youth IMPACT; 11 and,

12 WHEREAS, The work of these youth produced the most comprehensive and detailed 13 youth-led evaluation on a citywide scale in San Francisco; and,

14 WHEREAS, Youth IMPACT builds upon the youth-produced “Through Our Eyes:
15 Seeing the Power of the San Francisco’s Children’s Fund” as part of DCYF’s long-term 16 commitment to make youth-led evaluation central to how youth services are planned, funded 17 and assessed in San Francisco; and,

18 WHEREAS, Youth IMPACT consists of a group of San Francisco youth that represent 19 the diversity of the city who were hired to conduct a citywide evaluation of community based 20 organizations (“CBOs”) funded by DCYF; and,

21 WHEREAS, This publication was written entirely by youth, with the help of adult staff in 22 the final editing; and,

23 WHEREAS, The Youth IMPACT goal was to help the public gain a better sense of what 24 the youth need, so that you could improve the overall resources for youth in San Francisco,

1. How well are the CBOs in San Francisco serving children and youth; and
2. What makes a CBO feel trustworthy to youth?; and,

WHEREAS, Beginning in November 2000, participating youth were trained by adult Youth IMPACT staff three to four times a week who in collaboration developed the program curriculum; and,

WHEREAS, During the Youth IMPACT process, these youth participated in four research phases in developing a methodology, including: 1) Developing research questions, 2) Developing research instruments, 3) Collecting data, and 4) Developing recommendations and creating a final publication; and,

WHEREAS, A copy of the Youth IMPACT, Youth-Led Evaluation 2001 is on file with the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors in File No. 011695, which is hereby declared to be a part of this resolution as if set forth fully herein; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the City and County of San Francisco Board of Supervisors ("Board") does hereby commend the youth who participated as youth evaluators in Youth IMPACT 2001; and, be it

FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Board does hereby commend the Department of Children, Youth and Their Families for inspiring the voices of our youth to create and support the Youth IMPACT by funding the first comprehensive youth-led evaluation of DCYF-funded organizations.
