LEGISLATIVE DIGEST

[Business and Tax Regulations Code - Extending Waiver of Permit, License, and Business Registration Fees for Certain Small Businesses]

Ordinance amending the Business and Tax Regulations Code to extend, through June 30, 2026, the waiver of certain first-year permit, license, and business registration fees for specified small businesses that newly form or that open a new location.

Existing Law

The “First Year Free” program currently waives permit, initial license, and initial business registration fees for businesses that have estimated first-year San Francisco gross receipts of $5,000,000 or less, have a registered business location that is for commercial use other than for a home-based business or short-term residential rental use, and have actual San Francisco gross receipts of $15,000,000 or less in the calendar year of, or in any calendar year during the three full calendar years following, the date the business commenced business within San Francisco. It also waives permit and initial license fees for businesses that opened a location in the City for commercial use other than for a home-based business or short-term residential rental use, reported San Francisco gross receipts of $5,000,000 or less on their most recent return, and have actual San Francisco gross receipts of $15,000,000 or less in the calendar year of, or in any calendar year during the three full calendar years following, the date the businesses opened the new location. The “First Year Free” program expires on June 30, 2025.

Amendments to Current Law

This ordinance would extend the “First Year Free” program through June 30, 2026. It would not apply to permits, licenses, or business registration certificates filed on or after July 1, 2026.

Item 10 File 25-0259	Department: Office of the Treasurer-Tax Collector (TTX)
EXECUTIVE SUMMARY
Legislative Objectives <ul style="list-style-type: none"> The proposed ordinance would amend the Business Regulations and Tax Code to extend the First Year Free program by one year through June 2026. The proposed ordinance makes no other changes to the program. Key Points <ul style="list-style-type: none"> The First Year Free program was first approved by the Board of Supervisors in July 2021 in response to the economic impact of the COVID-19 pandemic on the City's small businesses. Authorized in 12-month increments, the program has undergone modest eligibility expansions and, if approved, this will be its fourth extension by the Board. The program covers all first-year, City-issued fees for most businesses with $5 million or less in gross receipts. The program is administered by the Treasurer-Tax Collector's office and has granted fee waivers to over 10,000 businesses since 2021. Fiscal Impact <ul style="list-style-type: none"> The mayor's proposed budget for FY 2025-26 – FY 2026-27 includes $2.5 million in FY 2025-26 for the First Year Free program. These funds are used to reimburse departments for lost revenue and for the two positions at TTX that administer the program. This level of funding is similar to actual spending on the program in FY 2024-25. No funding is budgeted for FY 2026-27. Policy Consideration <ul style="list-style-type: none"> The First Year Free program was originally established in response to the COVID-19 pandemic as a means of alleviating the financial hardships felt by small businesses due to pandemic-related disruptions. While originally designed as a form of emergency pandemic relief, the program's stated goals have shifted towards an incentive program for small businesses to form and expand by reducing the financial burden of start-up fees during first-year operations. According to data provided by TTX, approximately half of all fee waivers in 2024 were for food service businesses and the average fee waiver is $420. We recommend the Board request summary data on First Year Free beneficiaries to evaluate how well the program is targeting businesses of different sizes. This information would enable the Board to compare the impact of this program with other small business support initiatives and to evaluate the fiscal impact of restricting the eligibility requirements of this program in future years. Recommendation <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Approval of the proposed ordinance is a policy matter for the Board of Supervisors.

MANDATE STATEMENT

City Charter Section 2.105 states that all legislative acts shall be by ordinance, approved by a majority of the members of the Board of Supervisors.

BACKGROUND

Program History

In July 2021, the Board of Supervisors approved an ordinance (File 21-0741) temporarily waiving first-year permit, license, and business registration fees for certain small businesses as an economic recovery tool from the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic. Since its initial adoption, the program has returned to the Board each year for extension and approval. With each annual extension, the Board has approved minor modifications—primarily expanding business eligibility—which are summarized in Exhibit 1 below.

* Formula retail businesses are businesses that have eleven or more establishments with standardized features, per Section 303.1 of the Planning Code.

The current program waives or refunds all first-year fees except those related to Shared Spaces (Administrative Code 94A). It applies to businesses with $5 million or less in San Francisco gross receipts and requires that businesses operate from a location registered for commercial use. Home-based businesses and short-term rentals remain ineligible.

DETAILS OF PROPOSED LEGISLATION

The proposed ordinance would amend the Business Regulations and Tax Code to extend the First Year Free program by one year through June 2026. The proposed ordinance makes no other changes to the program.

Program Administration

According to Amanda Fried, the Treasurer-Tax Collector's Office Chief of Policy and Communications, the program employs two full-time Permanent Civil Service staff to administer its operations: one 4310 Commercial Division Assistant Supervisor and one 1634 Principal Account Clerk. TTX reports this staffing level is sufficient to effectively manage the program and the Department has no immediate plans to add staff to the program.

Businesses are automatically enrolled in the First Year Free program immediately upon registering with the Office of the Treasurer and Tax Collector, provided they meet the eligibility criteria at the time of registration. According to publicly available data from the Department, just over 10,000 businesses have enrolled in the First Year Free program since its inception in 2021.

Reporting Requirements

Per the Business Tax and Regulations Code,¹ the Tax Collector is required to collect specific information on all Qualified Businesses receiving fee waivers. This includes the business's Supervisor district, business activity codes as defined under the North American Industry Classification System (NAICS), and the total amount of fees waived. The Department is also required to submit an annual report to the Board of Supervisors by April 15 of each year the legislation remains in effect, detailing this information for the preceding calendar year.

FISCAL IMPACT

The mayor's proposed budget for FY 2025-26 – FY 2026-27 includes $2.5 million in FY 2025-26 for the First Year Free program. These funds are used to reimburse departments for lost revenue and for the two positions at TTX that administer the program. This level of funding is similar to actual spending on the program in FY 2024-25. No funding is budgeted for FY 2026-27.

Historical Program Cost

According to data provided from the Treasurer-Tax Collector's Office, the First Year Free program has provided over $3.8 million in fee relief since its inception in November 2021 through June 2024. Total fees generated grew by 14.8 percent between FYs 2022-23 and 2023-24. Based on actual spending data as of May 30, 2025, we estimate total fee relief of $2.1 million in FY 2024-25.

POLICY CONSIDERATION

The First Year Free program was originally established in response to the COVID-19 pandemic as a means of alleviating the financial hardships felt by small businesses due to pandemic-related disruptions. Since its launch, the program has expanded eligibility by raising the gross receipts threshold by $3 million and making relief available to all business types, with the exception of home-based establishments and short-term rentals. While originally designed as a form of emergency pandemic relief, the program's stated goals have shifted towards an incentive program for small businesses to form and expand by reducing the financial burden of start-up fees during first-year operations. According to data provided by TTX, approximately half of all fee waivers in 2024 were for food service businesses and the average fee waiver is $420.

In addition to the annual program reporting requirements listed in the Code, we recommend the Board request that future annual reports include summary data on businesses by gross receipts business registration fee categories to evaluate how well the program is targeting businesses of different sizes. This information would enable the Board to compare the impact of this program with other small business support initiatives and to evaluate the fiscal impact of restricting the eligibility requirements of this program in future years.

RE: BOS File No. 250259 – Business and Tax Regulations Code - Extending Waiver of Permit, License, and Business Registration Fees for Certain Small Businesses - Support

Dear Ms. Calvillo,

On March 24, 2025, the Small Business Commission (the Commission) heard BOS File No. 250259 – Business and Tax Regulations Code - Extending Waiver of Permit, License, and Business Registration Fees for Certain Small Businesses.

The legislation would extend the First Year Free Program, which began in November 2021, to support and revive San Francisco small businesses as the City recovered from the pandemic. The program waives the cost of initial registration fees, initial license fees, first-year permit, and other applicable fees for qualifying businesses. The Commission noted how helpful the program has been to date. They also discussed the symbolic message of support that it conveys to new business owners.

The Commission supported the legislation with a 6-0 vote, with one Commissioner absent. Thank you for considering the Commission's recommendations. Please feel free to contact me should you have any questions.

Sincerely,
