REVISED LEGISLATIVE DIGEST

(10/28/2021, Amended in Committee)

[Administrative Code - Domestic Violence Data Reporting]

Ordinance amending the Administrative Code to require the Police Department and the District Attorney to submit quarterly monthly reports to the Board of Supervisors, the Mayor, and various City departments regarding the number of cases of domestic violence.

Existing Law

Current City law does not require the Police Department or the District Attorney to submit monthly reports to the Board of Supervisors regarding the number of cases of domestic violence.

Amendments to Current Law

The proposal is an ordinance that would amend the Administrative Code to require the Police Department and the District Attorney to submit quarterly reports to the Board of Supervisors, the Mayor, the Office of Racial Equity, the Human Rights Commission, the Department on the Status of Women, and the Police Commission regarding the number of cases of domestic violence. The Police Department and the District Attorney would also be required to post the reports on their respective department websites.

The Police Department would report:

- The number of calls for service for Domestic Violence that the Police Department received from the Department of Emergency Management in the prior month; and
- The number of Domestic Violence cases that the Police Department presented to the District Attorney in the prior month, and of those cases, the number in which a child or children were present and/or a firearm was present.

The District Attorney would report:

- The number of Domestic Violence cases that the District Attorney charged in the prior month, and what charges were filed in those cases; and
- The number of Domestic Violence cases resolved in the prior month, and the outcome of those cases, including disposition by dismissal, diversion, acquittal, conviction, release to another court or agency, or other means.

In addition, the Police Department and the District Attorney would report the same information listed above for the period from September 1, 2019 to September 1, 2021.

The reports would not include any information identifying specific individuals.

Background Information

The Administrative Code requires the Police Department to issue a written report every three months disclosing, among other things, the number of domestic violence incidents reported during the previous quarter.

* * * * *

The original ordinance, as introduced May 25, 2021, would require the Police Department and the District Attorney to submit monthly reports to the Board of Supervisors regarding the number of cases of domestic violence. The committee amendments, made on July 22, 2021, change the reporting requirement to every three months, to be submitted on the same dates that the Police Department is already required to report on officer activity and crime victim data under Administrative Code Chapter 96A (“Law Enforcement Reporting Requirements”). The further committee amendments made on October 28, 2021, would require that the Police Department and District Attorney provide the quarterly reports to the Board of Supervisors, the Mayor, the Office of Racial Equity, the Human Rights Commission, the Department on the Status of Women, and the Police Commission, and that the Police Department and District Attorney post the reports on their respective department websites. The amendments would also change the deadline for submitting the report covering September 1, 2019, through September 1, 2021, from December 1, 2021, to December 31, 2021.

RE: File Number 210605 Proposed Ordinance Amending the Administrative Code - Domestic Violence Data Reporting

Dear Supervisor Stefani,

This letter is in response to the proposed Ordinance Amending the Administrative Code establishing reporting requirements for the San Francisco Police Department and the San Francisco District Attorney's Office. Addressing intimate partner violence is a top priority for my office. Under my leadership, the District Attorney's Office works to ensure that we are using the most effective interventions available to address interpersonal violence. As part of Domestic Violence Awareness Month, our office hosted a convening to highlight the voices of survivors and experts to discuss the complex nature of interpersonal violence and identify solutions that better serve domestic violence survivors. Just yesterday, my office held a ceremony with survivors, law enforcement partners; and victim advocates to honor domestic violence survivors and hear their powerful stories. These survivor, community, and law enforcement partnerships are critical to enhance interventions to end the cycles of violence and foster long lasting healing.

In addition, my office is strongly committed to providing greater transparency to the work of the criminal legal system. We have made publicly available dashboards and datasets accessible via the San Francisco District Attorney's Office website and DataSF, the online open data portal administered by the City and County of San Francisco. To that end, we are invested in collaborating to streamline information sharing amongst law enforcement partners, and happy to provide the data requested. However, we do want to raise a number of concerns we have regarding the efficacy of these statistics for truly measuring the scope of interpersonal violence in San Francisco or for assessing the efficacy of the City's efforts to break the cycle of violence and support healthy, safe families. We have outlined key areas of concern below regarding the limitations of the proposed reporting requirements for accurately measuring the prevalence of family violence or the effectiveness of responses aimed to reduce and eliminate abusive behaviors.

Definition of Domestic Violence

As proposed, the ordinance would amend Chapter 96D and define "Domestic Violence" to mean the crime defined in Section 273.5 and the crimes punishable under Section 243(e)(1), of the California Penal Code. This overlooks the fact that domestic violence is defined by Family Code 6211 and Penal Code 13700; consequently, domestic violence incidents, arrests, and charging decisions are based on the nature of the relationship— not the numeric Penal Code section that would be used in prosecuting the case. All fifty-eight counties follow this legal definition and make charging decisions in this manner. The proposed reporting requirement would therefore codify a new definition for Domestic Violence, limited to two Penal Code sections. This will obscure the full scope of resources directed by the San Francisco Police Department and the District Attorney's Office toward addressing domestic violence.

As a result, we recommend that the draft Ordinance be amended to define Domestic Violence as outlined in Family Code 6211 and Penal Code 13700 for the purpose of reporting from the San Francisco District Attorney's Office.

Limitations of Requested Data Elements

As proposed, SEC. 96D.2(a)(2)(B) would require the District Attorney's Office to produce summary aggregate case outcomes data that we believe are of limited value to a meaningful assessment of the success of investments made toward eradicating intimate partner violence and supporting survivors. In particular, the requested statistics outlined in the ordinance overlook the wide array of victim services and advocacy that my office provides to survivors of domestic violence, irrespective of whether a criminal case is being pursued. These services include but are not limited to, assistance applying for civil protective orders, crisis support services and counseling, guidance to navigate the criminal justice system, referrals to local resources and services, support at court hearings, and a wide variety of both short term and ongoing support. All of these services are critical for giving survivors the tools and support that they need to escape dangerous situations or, where appropriate, to engage in safe, successful family reunifications with rehabilitated partners.

In addition, the requested statistics include no indicators of the efficacy of City and County of San Francisco funded domestic violence interventions. Of particular concern is the absence of any requirement for data on the implementation and effectiveness of the year-long court-ordered certified batterer's intervention programs (BIP) overseen by the San Francisco Adult Probation Department. It is critical that we gain greater insight into a person's ability to access these services in a timely manner, the completion rates of these programs, or, most importantly, the effectiveness of these programs for ending the cycle of family violence and ultimately, where appropriate, facilitating safe, successful family reunions. For the City and County of San Francisco to achieve the ultimate goal of eradicating intimate partner violence, it is critical that we not only track the involvement of criminal justice agencies such as SFPD and SFDA, but that we also measure the efficacy of the interventions and supports that we provide.

Lastly, I want to highlight specific concerns regarding the current limitations of both the San Francisco Superior Court and District Attorney's Office databases that impede accurate reporting on all of the proposed data elements. In particular, other than an acquittal or conviction, most of the dispositional or case outcomes values requested in the proposed ordinance are best understood as point-in-time indicators. These charge level and case level outcomes can change quickly. For example, a case that is diverted can turn into a dismissal or a conviction, depending on the defendants' ability to successfully complete the terms of their diversion. Similarly, providing statistics on case dismissals provides no insight into the underlying reason for the dismissal, including whether it is the result of a successful diversion.

I urge you to adopt a more comprehensive approach to measuring San Francisco's response to domestic violence, as outlined in this letter. Members of my team and I welcome the opportunity to meet to discuss our suggestions and concerns in further detail. Please feel free to contact me if you have additional questions.

Sincerely yours,

RE: Ordinance on Domestic Violence Data Reporting, File #210605 – SUPPORT

Dear Honorable Members of the Public Safety and Neighborhood Services Committee:

On behalf of the San Francisco Women's Political Committee (SFWPC), we are writing in strong support of File #210605, the proposed ordinance amending the Administrative Code to require the Police Department and the District Attorney to submit quarterly reports to the Board of Supervisors regarding the number of cases of domestic violence. This legislation, if passed, would provide crucial data relating to domestic violence trends in San Francisco, including but not limited to changes in reports of domestic violence and information on the progression of domestic violence cases.

SFWPC's mission is to endorse, empower, and elect people as candidates for local office who self-identify as women and those who share our values. SFWPC champions policies and candidates committed to advancing intersectional feminism, racial justice, gender equity, and equitable systems and structures through participation in the San Francisco political process. SFWPC endorses policies that promote transparency, justice, equity, and the safety of all in our communities. Striving to improve services and outcomes for those experiencing domestic violence is vital to advancing those objectives.

Domestic violence is a crime that disproportionately impacts women+ in San Francisco¹ and the conditions of the pandemic have exacerbated already troubling domestic violence statistics. Numerous studies², including reports from local service organizations³, show that shelter-in-place orders have led to an increase in incidents of domestic violence. As society reopens, we must continue to advance policies and practices that support victims and survivors of domestic violence.

The City and County of San Francisco currently does not have detailed reporting related to domestic violence making it difficult to understand the full scope of the problem and whether patterns exist. The proposed ordinance would mandate that the Police Department and District Attorney's Office track and report quarterly on important data points around domestic violence reports, responses, and cases. This information will provide much needed transparency as to the extent of this abusive behavior and will help City leaders better allocate adequate resources for victims and survivors.

For these reasons, SFWPC supports the proposed Ordinance on Domestic Violence Data Reporting (File #210605) and respectfully requests your "Aye" vote.

Sincerely,

- Family First Prevention Services Act signed into federal law in 2018, and is beginning to be implemented in California
- Act introduces new federal revenue streams for interventions that aim to prevent entry into foster care
- FCS will be working with community partners and CDSS in the coming years to learn how to leverage this federal policy development to prevent maltreatment and the need for foster care locally

This Land is Not Your Land: How to be a Good Settler.

1. Acknowledge, regardless of intention, you will always be a settler, a guest in someone else's home. Come with cultural humility and respect, always.
2. Grow your awareness of current causes and political actions of local Native people; Attend local events, volunteering to support a group or event.
3. Donate time, money, and resources to aid in tribal community work.
4. Do not homogenize Native communities.
5. Educate your colleagues, friends, and neighbors on how to be good settlers.

Gratitude to Dr. Zea Malawa (SFDPH) who collaborated with Indigenous leaders to ask about how to be a good settler.

We live in a country built from the uncompensated and enslaved labor of Black people on lands stolen from Indigenous tribes

Violence Prevention

Violence	Freedom from Violence	Types of Remedies
Root causes—Ideologies, policies, practices that are based on Supremacism/Dehumanization	Root facilitators—Ideologies, policies, practices that are based on mutuality, reciprocity, respect for agency	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Truth & Reconciliation processes • Rematriation of land to Indigenous tribes • Reparations to Black and Indigenous communities • Return of BIPOC people displaced by gentrification
Structural Violence—structuring society to distribute power & resources inequitably and use state-sponsored violence to maintain these inequities	Society structured to ensure all human beings and our planet thrive	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Access to safe & uplifting: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Housing • Food • Employment/UBI • Childcare/education • Healthcare • Nature/greenspace • Arts/Healing practices • Freedom from state-sponsored surveillance, control, and harm
Interpersonal Violence	Respect for agency and humanity of all people, nurturing relationships	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Interpersonal violence prevention education, community-based programs that serve people experiencing or using IPV • Freedom from state-sponsored surveillance, control, and harm

Disasters cause and exacerbate structural and interpersonal violence—Readiness & Rapid Response

- San Francisco and all SF City & County Departments must integrate advance planning for preventing and mitigating structural violence and interpersonal violence
- Community-based organizations that support people impacted by both structural and interpersonal/family violence need immediate access to enhanced resources when any type of disaster occurs
- Success: Partnership amongst DV agencies, DOSW, SFDPH resulted in ability to keep staff serving DV survivors and survivors safe from both violence and COVID19
 - DV shelter and other DV services remained open with safe infection control measures
 - DV shelters—No intra-shelter transmission of COVID19 (staff & residents)
 - DV shelter testing & vaccination education throughout pandemic

Interpersonal Violence Prevention & Intervention

- Disinvest in policing and re-invest in structural supports for safety (housing, food, employment/income, etc) and community-based and culturally resonant organizations
- Invest in shelter and housing resources that ensure that all survivors (all people!) have safe place to live
- Integrate IPV/FV education, prevention, and services into the places that people live, play, work and seek help
- Invest in prevention and assistance that do not involve mandatory reporting, surveillance and control

Expand on-site advocacy services for people experiencing, or at risk of experiencing IPV at SFGH

ARISE (Aspire to Re-Imagine Safety & Equity) IPV Advocacy Program:

- Integrated an on-site ARISE IPV Advocate (from La Casa de las Madres) into care for 5 SFGH campus based primary care and women's clinics
- Immediate access to IPV Advocacy for anyone experiencing “stress in your relationship” or being “put down, hurt, hit, threatened by your partner or someone else”
- Expansion to all pregnant persons seeking care at SFGH to prevent intergenerational transmission of IPV
- Future expansion to ED, Urgent Care, inpatient services needed
