City and County of San Francisco
Multifamily Housing Revenue Bond Program
Project Description

Mission Bay South Block 3 East - 1150 3rd Street

Overview

The funds described in the “Financing Structure” section below will be used to finance the development of 1150 3rd Street, a 101-unit affordable multifamily housing project to be located at 1150 3rd Street in San Francisco’s Mission Bay neighborhood (the “Project”). The Project, which is being developed by Chinatown Community Development Center and Swords to Plowshares, will serve low-income families and formerly homeless veterans.

Upon completion, the Project will include approximately 121,832 square feet of gross floor area, comprised of 78,778 square feet of residential area and 61,027 square feet of non-residential area. Non-residential spaces will include a large community room; multipurpose and youth rooms; office and counseling spaces; laundry facilities; and a large, landscaped central courtyard.

Total project costs, including the cost to acquire the land and construct new buildings, will be approximately $90 million, or $892,000 per dwelling unit.

The residential unit distribution, which will include a single 3-bedroom onsite manager’s unit, is as follows:

Unit type	Number of units
1-Bedroom	50
2-Bedroom	30
3-Bedroom	21

50% percent of the residential units will serve veteran households earning less than 30 percent of the San Francisco County Area Median Income (“AMI”); these one-bedroom units will be set aside for formerly homeless veterans. Thirty (30) units will serve households earning less than 50 percent of AMI and 20 households earning less than 60 percent AMI.

The developers anticipate receiving a combination of VASH and LOSP subsidies. In the event of a loss of subsidy, the maximum rents would go to 60% AMI.

Residents

No residents will be displaced as this is a new construction project.

The following sources of capital financing are expected to be utilized:
