Dear Supervisor Tang:

The San Francisco Child Care Planning and Advisory Council (CPAC) is the State mandated policy and planning body appointed by the Board of Supervisors and the Board of Education to advise the City on early care and education issues.

Simon Lee, the executive director of Growth Learning & Opportunities had previously held the District 4 seat. Simon has been a tremendous asset to CPAC, but due to changes in the organization has not been able to attend CPAC meetings. For this reason he has needed to resign from his appointed seat. Under CPAC's by laws, Council membership must be composed of 20% consumers of child care services, 20% child care providers, 20% public agency representatives, 20% community representatives and 20% discretionary appointees. Simon was appointed as a provider and represented the afterschool/out of school time (OST) voice. At this time CPAC has only one other provider who represents OST and for this reason CPAC was hoping that the provider appointed in this seat could continue to strengthen the OST voice on CPAC.

CPAC is grateful for your offices' recommendation of Matt Pemberton, the executive director of the Sunset Neighborhood Beacon Center (SNBC). A few weeks ago I met with Matt to explain the role of CPAC, member expectations, and the importance of having a strong afterschool voice on the Council. Since learning about CPAC Matt has attended a CPAC meeting, has volunteered to give feedback at an upcoming meeting focusing on CPAC's citywide plan, and has moved a standing meeting at his agency in order to attend CPAC meetings.

As the current executive director of the Sunset Neighborhood Beacon Center, Matt provides fiscal oversight, technical assistance, and support to SNBC's after school and summer programs at five local school sites. Previous to this role, Matt served as a District Coordinator for the San Francisco Unified School District's ExCEL After School Programs. Matt experience also includes working as the After School Site Coordinator at Marina Middle School, where he provided daily programming and services for hundreds of youth. An added benefit is that Matt is a lifelong resident of District 4 and is the proud father of twin kindergarteners who attend Jefferson Elementary.

Matt familiarity of OST programs exemplifies his commitment to improving afterschool programs. Matt would also bring the voice of someone born and raised in San Francisco, specifically District 4, as well as the perspective of a father raising his children in a public school. I have no doubt that Matt's experience as a provider, as a native of San Francisco, and as a parent will be a tremendous asset to CPAC. We hope that you agree that Matt's current position, experience, insight, and expertise would be a valuable addition to CPAC.

"Setting and driving the child care agenda for San Francisco's children and their families"

Please feel free to contact me with any questions you may have regarding CPAC, our work, or our appointment and outreach process. Although the initial recommendation was directly from your office, Matt and I are available to continue discuss his qualifications and appropriateness for the District 4 vacancy. CPAC strongly recommends Matt Pemberton to represent the child care agenda within the city of San Francisco. If you have any questions, please contact me at (415) 355-3673.

Thank you,

CPAC application addendum:

To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing to explain my interest in applying for the D4 seat of the Child Care Planning and Advisory Council. I am a San Francisco native and have lived in the Sunset since I was 3 ½ years old. I attended Jefferson Elementary, Hoover Middle and Lincoln High schools and received my BA in Cinema from San Francisco State University. I have lived between District 4 and District 7 all of my adult life. I have benefitted from the direct support that this wonderful city has chosen to provide its youth and wish to ensure that the youth of San Francisco are given at least as much support in the future.

As a father of twin five year olds who attend public school (Jefferson Elementary) and who attended pre-school in District 4 (Playmates Cooperative Nursery School) I have a vested interest in the success of both early child and out of school time education. For the last ten years I have worked within the Out of School time field and recently had the fortune of becoming the Director of the Sunset Neighborhood Beacon Center. I see my role as being an advocate for the youth and families within the Sunset. I see early education and out of school time as direct ways to enrich, enhance and better the lives of San Francisco's youth.

Sincerely,

Matt Pemberton - Director, Sunset Neighborhood Beacon Center
