6 WHEREAS, The City of San Francisco has a strong history of advocacy and support 7 for homeless individuals and families; and

8 WHEREAS, The problem of the lack of affordable housing and homelessness in San 9 Francisco is immense, yet it affects and involves individual lives, each with their own unique 10 story, history, and humanity; and

11 WHEREAS, The City of San Francisco has seen hundreds of homeless individuals die 12 on the streets of our City just in the last few years; and,

13 WHEREAS, Though some of our citizens may have passed from this world 14 anonymous and/or neglected, by no means should their lives be forgotten; and

15 WHEREAS, Mr. Ian Brennan has filed commemorative plaque encroachment permit 16 applications with Department of Public Works to install several bronze plaques throughout 17 District 6 and one in District 5; and,

18 WHEREAS, Mr. Ian Brennan's Sidewalk Memorial project is a privately funded 19 endeavor; therefore, be it

20 RESOLVED, That the Board of Supervisors of the City and County of San Francisco 21 hereby urges the Department of Public Works to approve Ian Brennan's applications for the 22 above mentioned sidewalk homeless memorial project.
