4 Commission by regulation.

LEGISLATIVE DIGEST

[Initiative Ordinance - Campaign and Governmental Conduct Code - Prohibiting Candidate-Controlled General Purpose Committees]

Motion ordering submitted to the voters an Ordinance amending the Campaign and Governmental Conduct Code to prohibit City elected officials from establishing candidate-controlled general purpose committees, at an election to be held on November 8, 2016.

Existing Law

1. Local Law

San Francisco Campaign and Governmental Conduct Code Section 1.122 restricts how local candidates may use their campaign funds, i.e., campaign contributions. Section 1.122(b)(1) provides that campaign funds may be used only to further a candidate's election to office, or for expenses associated with holding that office, so long as those expenditures are reasonably related to a legislative, governmental, or political purpose.

Section 1.122(b)(3) provides that "surplus funds," e.g., funds remaining in a candidate's campaign account after the candidate leaves City elective office, must be:

- returned on a "last in, first out" basis to contributors;
- donated to a charitable organization;
- donated to the City;
- used to pay outstanding campaign debts; or
- used to pay expenses associated with terminating the committee.

2. State Law

A "controlled committee" is a committee that is controlled directly or indirectly by a candidate. Cal. Gov. Code § 82016. A candidate controls a committee if he or she, his or her agent, or any other committee he or she controls has a significant influence on the actions or decisions of the committee. A candidate may exercise significant influence over a committee in various ways, including being involved with decision-making or developing or implementing campaign strategy for the committee. See Pirayou Adv. Ltr., FPPC Adv. I-10-159, 2010 WL 5481367 (Dec. 13, 2010).

Under state law, a candidate typically cannot control more than one committee, except for committees formed to support or oppose ballot measures. See Bagatelos Adv. Ltr., CA FPPC Adv. I-89-240, 1989 WL 572585 (May 31, 1989).

A “general purpose committee” is a committee that supports or opposes more than one candidate or ballot measure. Cal. Gov. Code § 82027.5. (In contrast, a “primarily formed committee” is a committee that supports or opposes a single candidate or measure. Id. § 82047.5.) Thus, a candidate-controlled general purpose committee may spend campaign funds to support or oppose multiple ballot measures.

Local elected officeholders are subject to both state and local law restrictions. So under existing law, a local officeholder could control a general purpose committee, but that committee could spend funds only on ballot measures, not to support or oppose other candidates.

Amendments to Current Law

The proposed amendments would amend Section 1.122 to prohibit local officeholders from controlling a general purpose committee. The amendments would also provide that if a local candidate controlled a general purpose committee prior to assuming office, the candidate would have 90 days to dispose of any campaign funds as surplus funds.

Hi Lee,

The video (and audio) recording of Monday's meeting is available here:

If you need something in writing that confirms that the Commission voted 4-0 in favor of Item 6, perhaps this meeting summary would suffice?

Subject: Rules July 14: Candidate-controlled General Purpose Committees

Chair, Rules Committee Members:

Friends of Ethics respectfully submits our recommendation in support of the initiative ordinance or board action on the prohibition of Candidate-controlled General Purpose Committees (Item 160699).

The 2013-2014 Civil Grand Jury recommended that action be taken to close a loophole that allowed for unlimited contributions to be controlled by an officeholder or candidate over a period of years, without regard to any specific ballot measure, meanwhile paying for a political infrastructure that includes polling, consultants, fundraisers, attorneys, mail, ads, literature, and even to pay for an official's private legal defense in a case brought by the city, among other costs.

Even more alarming, a 2014 Superior Court decision in FPPC v Reed held that such committees may expend their funds to support or defeat candidates for offices other than the one they hold or seek. The road is open for machine politics of the worse kind, and in ways that voters earlier overwhelmingly sought to end with Proposition X and Proposition J, later amended out of existence.

The San Francisco Ethics Commission unanimously endorsed Supervisor Peskin's ballot proposal now before the Rules Committee, having heard earlier extensive testimony on the potential corrupting influence of unlimited donations by Bob Stern, co-author of the California Political Reform Act, and Corey Cook, then the Director of the Leo T. McCarthy Center for Public Service and the Common Good.

The San Francisco Ethics Commission's database reveals that more than $700,000 was donated to candidate-controlled general purpose committees since 2012 in amounts as large as $49,000, with many contributions at $25,000 or $40,000. The record shows the contributors were primarily developers, lobbyists, industry groups, investors seeking tax laws with special benefits, builders seeking variances and others seeking city approvals on decisions by the same officials.

As Bob Stern testified before the June 5, 2015 San Francisco Ethics Commission, “The donor does not care how a contribution is used; the donor only cares about the gratitude of the officeholder. He stated that the donor at the very least wants access to the official; at the most, the donor wants a decision by the officeholder. He estimated that 90% of campaign money comes from people who want something from government.”

Dr. Cook also testified that “the appearance of corruption and the potential for corruption is present. And I would add, as importantly in my view, is the potential to increase the cynicism and disengagement of the public through these convoluted and non-transparent campaign funding mechanisms.” (taken from SF Ethics Commission June 5, 2015 minutes (<http://www.sfethics.org/ethics/2015/06/minutes-june-5-2015.html>))

These “candidate-controlled general purpose committees” are different in magnitude and potential corrupting influence from a candidate-controlled ballot measure committee. A ballot measure committee is for a specific ballot measure in a specific election. While it also can be controlled by a candidate or officeholder, the funds it collects are specifically intended to support a specific ballot measure.

A “candidate-controlled general purpose committee” by law is not about any specific ballot measure, any specific election, and may never be about a ballot measure since the law allows funds to be collected and spent for the mere prospect of a potential ballot measure. This is true even if the General Purpose Committee states that it is about “ballot measures.”

Unlike a candidate-controlled ballot measure committee, the General Purpose committee can roll its funds over from one election to another—which is exactly what is taking place in San Francisco.

Friends of Ethics reviewed all the campaign filings at the state Fair Political Practices Commission and found that only San Francisco has an active “candidate-controlled General Purpose Committee” controlled by a local officeholder. Indeed, elsewhere officials appear to have come to the realization that such committees clearly circumvent the candidate contribution limits and operate with virtually no constraints on how the funds are spent.

A Friends of Ethics poll conducted by David Binder last month found that 67% of voters believe that campaign contributions and lobbying is having a negative impact on government in San Francisco. That high percentage held true in every supervisorial district, with the highest percentage of 75% in District 10.

Friends of Ethics recommends the Rules Committee approve and support the ballot measure and ordinance to ban candidate-controlled general purpose committees at its July 14 meeting and pass it to the full Board with a recommendation to approve.

Friends of Ethics consists of former Ethics Commissioners, past civil grand jury members, past leaders of San Francisco Common Cause, and other proponents of ethics in government.

Thank you for your consideration of our recommendation.
