Budget Narrative

Description	Costs (OT Costs per Hour)	Length of Time (hours of OT)	Total Costs
Lieutenant	$137.12	49.75	$6,822
Sergeant	$119.50	300	$35,850
Officers	$102.91	800	$82,328
Total		1,149.75	$125,000

This proposed budget for this project will be managed by the Captain and a dedicated Lieutenant from Tenderloin Police Station. Working underneath the Lieutenant dedicated to the implementation of this program will be 2 Sergeants and anywhere from 10-12 officers depending on the deployment strategy of the day. The Department seeks grant funding for the overtime costs associated with running the program for the Lieutenant, Sergeants and Officers involved. These positions will coordinate requests for services with a multitude of partner agencies and organizations, will conduct bi-monthly public safety workshops, implement targeted monolingual community outreach for specific underserved subsections of the Tenderloin community, and partner with local youth groups to create mentorship programs that partner officers with community youth. In addition, some officers involved in the program will serve as footbeat officers patrolling the streets in the areas that have been impacted the most by the most recent increase in crime.

▼ Award Letter

October 12, 2021

Dear Patrick Leung,

On behalf of Attorney General Merrick B. Garland, it is my pleasure to inform you the Office of Community Oriented Policing Services (the COPS Office) has approved the application submitted by SAN FRANCISCO, CITY & COUNTY OF for an award under the funding opportunity entitled 2021 Community Policing Development (CPD) Microgrants Solicitation. The approved award amount is $125,000.

Review the Award Instrument below carefully and familiarize yourself with all conditions and requirements before accepting your award. The Award Instrument includes the Award Offer (Award Information, Project Information, Financial Information, and Award Conditions) and Award Acceptance.

Please note that award requirements include not only the conditions and limitations set forth in the Award Offer, but also compliance with assurances and certifications that relate to conduct during the period of performance for the award. These requirements encompass financial, administrative, and programmatic matters, as well as other important matters (e.g., specific restrictions on use of funds). Therefore, all key staff should receive the award conditions, the assurances and certifications, and the application as approved by the COPS Office, so that they understand the award requirements. Information on all pertinent award requirements also must be provided to any subrecipient of the award.

Should you accept the award and then fail to comply with an award requirement, DOJ will pursue appropriate remedies for non-compliance, which may include termination of the award and/or a requirement to repay award funds.

ROBERT CHAPMAN
Acting Director

Office for Civil Rights Notice for All Recipients

The Office for Civil Rights (OCR), Office of Justice Programs (OJP), U.S. Department of Justice

(DOJ) has been delegated the responsibility for ensuring that recipients of federal financial assistance from the OJP, the Office of Community Oriented Policing Services (COPS), and the Office on Violence Against Women (OVW) are not engaged in discrimination prohibited by law. Several federal civil rights laws, such as Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, require recipients of federal financial assistance to give assurances that they will comply with those laws. Taken together, these civil rights laws prohibit recipients of federal financial assistance from DOJ from discriminating in services and employment because of race, color, national origin, religion, disability, sex, and, for grants authorized under the Violence Against Women Act, sexual orientation and gender identity. Recipients are also prohibited from discriminating in services because of age. For a complete review of these civil rights laws and nondiscrimination requirements, in connection with DOJ awards, see <https://ojp.gov/funding/Explore/LegalOverview/CivilRightsRequirements.htm>.

Under the delegation of authority, the OCR investigates allegations of discrimination against recipients from individuals, entities, or groups. In addition, the OCR conducts limited compliance reviews and audits based on regulatory criteria. These reviews and audits permit the OCR to evaluate whether recipients of financial assistance from the Department are providing services in a nondiscriminatory manner to their service population or have employment practices that meet equal-opportunity standards.

If you are a recipient of grant awards under the Omnibus Crime Control and Safe Streets Act or the Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention Act and your agency is part of a criminal justice system, there are two additional obligations that may apply in connection with the awards: (1) complying with the regulation relating to Equal Employment Opportunity Programs (EEOs); and (2) submitting findings of discrimination to OCR. For additional information regarding the EEO requirement, see 28 CFR Part 42, subpart E, and for additional information regarding requirements when there is an adverse finding, see 28 C.F.R. §§ 42.204(c), .205(c) (5).

The OCR is available to help you and your organization meet the civil rights requirements that are associated with DOJ grant funding. If you would like the OCR to assist you in fulfilling your organization's civil rights or nondiscrimination responsibilities as a recipient of federal financial assistance, please do not hesitate to contact the OCR at askOCR@ojp.usdoj.gov.

Project Description

This project will take place in the Tenderloin district of San Francisco and the lead agency will be the San Francisco Police Department in partnership with nearly a dozen nonprofits, community groups and city agencies including but not limited to Urban Alchemy, Community Ambassadors, the Tenderloin Community Benefit District, the Boys and Girls Club, the YMCA, Mid-Market Community Benefit District, and the Department of Public Works. The issues that this project intends to address are threefold. First and foremost is the issue created by the recent increase in crime and the corresponding decrease in public safety in the community. The second issue is the current level of disconnect between the police department and the community it serves. The third issue is the lack of significant and sustained youth engagement. In order to address these issues, our department will undertake a number of activities, the first of which is dramatically increasing the number of uniformed foot beat officers patrolling the streets in the areas that have been impacted the most. Secondly, in order to address the current disconnect between the community and the police department, we will be dramatically increasing both our outreach and education with the community through bi-monthly public safety workshops and the implementation of targeted monolingual community outreach for specific underserved subsections of the Tenderloin community. Finally, in order to address the lack of significant and sustained youth engagement, we will be partnering with local youth groups such as the Boys and Girls Club, the YMCA and the Salvation Army to create mentorship programs that partner officers with community youth.

I have read and understand the information presented in this section of the Federal Award Instrument.

1. Advance determination regarding suitability. The recipient (and any subrecipient at any tier) may not permit any covered individual to interact with any participating minor in the course of activities under the award, unless the recipient or subrecipient first has made a written determination of the suitability of that individual to interact with participating minors, based on current and appropriate information as described in paragraph 3.E., and taking into account the factors and considerations described in paragraph 4.

D. "Activities under the award." Whether paid for with federal funds from the award, "matching" funds included in the COPS Office-approved budget for the award, or "program income" for the award as defined by the (DOJ) Part 200 Uniform Requirements), activities under the award include both --

(1) activities carried out under the award by the recipient (or subrecipient); and

(2) actions taken by an entity or individual pursuant to a procurement contract under the award or to a procurement contract under a subaward at any tier.

E. "Current and appropriate information"

In addition to information resulting from checks or screening required by applicable federal, state, tribal, or local law, and/or by the recipient's (or subrecipient's) written policies and procedures, current and appropriate information includes the results of all required searches listed below, each of which must be completed no earlier than six months before the determination regarding suitability.
