Ms. Calvillo:

I would like to reiterate the statement I made to the Neighborhood Services Committee last Thursday.

The Commission on the Status of Women strongly supports pay equity and has asked for an opportunity to convene in Special Session to review the proposed legislation.

Thank you very much.

Emily

* In 1998, San Francisco became the first city in the world to enact a local ordinance reflecting the principles of the UN Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination Against Women (CEDAW), an international bill of rights for women that then-President Jimmy Carter signed but has yet to be ratified by the US Senate, leaving the US among just 7 nations, and the only industrialized nation, in the world who have not signed on. In March 2014, Mayor Edwin Lee challenged 100 U.S. cities to become CEDAW cities in time for the US Conference of Mayors meeting to be hosted by San Francisco in June 2015.
