Pursuant to Charter, Sections 2.103 and 3.100(7), and Administrative Code, Section 2.11, the Mayor shall discuss the following eligible topics submitted from the Supervisors representing Districts 5, 7, and 8. The Mayor may address the Board initially for up to five minutes. Discussion shall not exceed two minutes per question or answer.

1. Spending on and Planning for Homelessness/Homeless Services (District 5)
2. Affordable, Quality Early Care and Education and It's Workforce (District 7)
3. Homelessness (District 8)

Mayor London Breed addressed the Board of Supervisors regarding the 40th anniversary of the assassination of Mayor Moscone and Supervisor Milk and their many accomplishments and contributions to San Francisco. Mayor Breed then discussed the above referenced topics submitted by the District 5, 7, and 8 Supervisors.

Supervisor Yee began the discussions by asking the following question: How will you lead the implementation of the Early Care and Education Initiative and what is your vision for Early Care and Education for the City such as addressing the early education workforce and affordability crisis? Mayor Breed indicated her commitment to funding Early Care and Education and the steps being taken to implement the programs. Supervisor Yee then followed up with the following question: Would you be supportive of providing additional resources while the court decisions are being resolved? Mayor Breed indicated her decision will be based on the balancing of the budget, but reiterated her commitment to this funding. Mayor Breed did not ask any follow-up questions related to this topic.

Supervisor Brown began the discussions by asking the following question(s): While the City waits for a judicial decision, how can we work with you to help deliver on the promise of Proposition C and the will of the voters? And more specifically, how can we work together to deliver more funding for homelessness as quickly as possible? Mayor Breed indicated she is committed to responding to the legal challenges to ensure certainty as quickly as possible and is committed to ensuring the funding for Proposition C is delivered as quickly as possible and, in the meantime, there are a number of legislative approvals and programs being implemented. Supervisor Brown then followed up with the following question: How can we get more shelter beds implemented as quickly as possible? Mayor Breed indicated she would work with each of the District Supervisors to get these approvals through the legislative process. Mayor Breed did not ask any follow-up questions related to this topic.

Supervisor Mandelman began the discussions by asking the following question(s): What improvements (on homelessness) can my constituents expect to see over the next year, specifically in District 8 neighborhoods, how will you achieve those changes, and what support do you need from us on the Board to improve street conditions in our neighborhoods? Mayor Breed stated her commitment to opening up more shelter beds, funding programs to combat homelessness, and the new programs and services being created for those with mental health issues. Supervisor Mandelman then followed up with the following question: Given the commitments, do you feel those who have not seen improvements will begin to see improvements? Mayor Breed reiterated her commitment to invest in more shelter beds and single room occupancy residences as a short term solution and to find new innovative ways to solve this issue.
