LEGISLATIVE DIGEST

(Amendment of the Whole, dated 8/2/2010)

[Increasing penalties for certain crimes committed on MTA vehicles or platforms or in bus zones.]

Ordinance amending the San Francisco Police Code by consolidating Sections 122 and 123 and amending former Section 123 and Section 1291, to increase from $500 to $1,000 the maximum allowable fine for the crimes of aggressive pursuit and of loitering while carrying a concealed weapon, where the violation occurs on vehicles, platforms or bus zones of the Municipal Transportation Agency, and urging "non-custodial" dispositions for juvenile violators.

Existing Law

Section 122 of the Police Code prohibits "aggressive pursuit," defined as "the wilful, malicious or repeated following or harassment of another person, including, but not limited to, wilful or malicious communications by telephone, modem, facsimile or mail with the intent to cause annoyance, intimidation or fear on the part of the person being pursued." Section 123 provides that aggressive pursuit may be punished by a fine not to exceed $500, or by imprisonment in the county jail for up to 6 months, or both.

Section 1291 makes it unlawful to loiter while carrying a concealed weapon. Although the Police Code does not specify the penalty for violation of Section 1291, state law provides that violation of a local ordinance is a misdemeanor, unless specifically made an infraction. The penalties for misdemeanors, under state law, are imprisonment in the county jail not to exceed six months, or a fine not to exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000), or both.

Amendments to Current Law

The proposal is an ordinance that would amend the Police Code to increase the maximum allowable fines for the crimes of aggressive pursuit and of loitering while carrying a concealed weapon from $500 to $1,000, where the violation occurs on Municipal Transportation Agency vehicles or platforms, or within 25 feet of a bus zone. The proposal would also clarify that loitering while carrying a concealed weapon in other locations is also a misdemeanor and sets a maximum fine of $500 for those violations.

The amendment of the whole, dated 8/3/2010, combines Section 122, prohibiting "aggressive pursuit," and Section 123, setting the penalties for violation, into a single section. The amendment of the whole also adds definitions for "Municipal Transportation Agency transit platform" and "Municipal Transportation agency transit vehicle." Finally, the amendment of the whole adds language urging the Juvenile Court to favor community service and an at-home or other "non-custodial" placement when the violator is a minor.
