Re: Reappointment, Port Commission - Kimberly Brandon

Honorable Chair, Vice Chair, and Member of the Rules Committee:

I wish to strongly indicate my support for the reappointment of Kimberly Brandon to the San Francisco Port Commission. I have known Kimberly Brandon to be of the highest character, professionalism, and stewardship in her dedicated service to the Port and the City of San Francisco.

As a principal of a local business enterprise, I have consistently seen Kimberly Brandon's care of process and fairness as a strong advocate for the small business community in San Francisco. Her leadership, business and financial acumen will be key strengths as the Port continues its success in managing San Francisco's prized waterfront asset.

Sincerely,

Vincent McCarley

Dear Supervisors Yee, Breed and Cohen: I am writing to support the re-appointment of Kimberly Brandon to the Port Commission. I served with Kimberly for more than seven years as a Commissioner at times serving as her Commission Vice-President or she as Vice-President when I was President. It is important the Commission have history and context during its deliberations and currently we have some very sensitive projects coming before the Commission. While Kim and I did not always agree on all the issues she was a hard worker and dedicated to the Port.

I heartily endorse her re-appointment and hope you will also. Thank you.

Dear Supervisor Yee,

As I am currently out of town and won't be back in time to attend the Rules Committee meeting this Thursday, I am writing to express my strong support for the re-appointment of Commissioner Kimberly Brandon to the Port Commission for a fifth term.

I think that not only has she been an exemplary Port Commission member during her tenure to-date, but given all of the infrastructure and redevelopment projects currently underway and planned for the Port, I think that her institutional memory and experience are an invaluable asset to the Port. I also believe that her passionate commitment to diversity and leadership within the LBE community are important to helping to ensure that all of San communities benefit economically from the Port's development activities.

Thank you.

Re: Kimberly Brandon re-appointment to San Francisco Port Commission

To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing in support of Kimberly Brandon for a fifth term on the San Francisco Port Commission.

Kimberly is one of San Francisco State University's outstanding alums. I have come to know her well since I was appointed Dean of the College of Business last summer. She is an active volunteer and generous donor to the University including volunteering to serve on the College of Business Development Council.

An active supporter of public education and community services in the City of San Francisco, Kimberly has proven to be a thoughtful steward of the public interest. A native of San Francisco, her business background combined with her passion for building the infrastructure needed to drive San Francisco and the region into the future, are a real asset for the Port Commission.

It is without reservation that I support Kimberly's reappointment.

Please let me know if you have any questions, or need additional input.

Sincerely,

Re: Support for Reappointment of Kimberly Brandon

Dear Honorable Members Yee, Breed, and Cohen,

I am writing this letter in support of Ms. Brandon's reappointment to the San Francisco Port Commission. I am especially appreciative of Ms. Brandon's advocacy for and outreach to the small, minority-, and women-owned business community in San Francisco. She has been instrumental in assuring that the Port is proactive and inclusive in its contracting practices and diligently follows through on compliance with participation goals and, significantly to her credit, participation at the prime contractor and developer levels of involvement. I am personally appreciative of her accomplishments in promoting opportunities for small businesses to participate in significant large-scale waterfront projects during her years as a Commissioner. I am confident she will continue such efforts in connection with the major improvements planned for deteriorated piers, construction and operations of the Cruise Terminal, development of Seawall Lot 337/Pier 48, 8 Washington, and the Warriors Arena, to name a few.

Also laudable is her engagement of the neighboring communities where the Port is located to ensure that a fair and equitable outcome is achieved in the Commission's decision-making processes. As a native San Franciscan, Ms. Brandon remains vested in the well-being of the City-at-large and is proactive in staying attuned to and participating in the issues and concerns that bear on the well-being of us all. At the risk of sounding trite, it is easy to say that she not only talks the talk, she walks the walks!

Yours truly,

Todd W. Clayter

Dear Supervisor Yee:

I would like to lend my voice to those of so many others who support another term for Kimberly Brandon to the five-member Board of Commissioners for the Port of San Francisco. Ms. Brandon remains a loyal public servant who serves with dedication and integrity. Her commitment to public service and her understanding of the business world have combined to allow her to target her efforts most effectively to help our city grow in ways that are financially rewarding while remaining true to principles that support diversity, inclusion and access. Ms. Brandon is an effective advocate, and tireless worker who gets things done. As a homeowner and taxpayer in the Fillmore District of this great City, I urge you to reappoint Kimberly Brandon to the Board of Commissioners for the Port of San Francisco.

Dear Supervisor Yee,

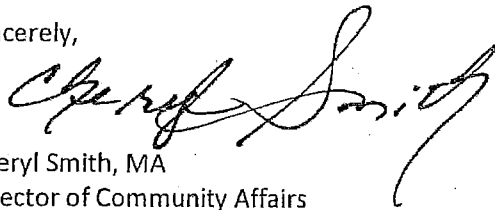

I am writing to support the reappointment of Ms. Kimberly Brandon to the San Francisco Port Commission. Kim has been a leader on the Commission using her skills and expertise to ensure that our Port remain strong and continues to create diverse opportunities for San Francisco.

Kim is a naïve San Franciscan invested both personally and professional in this city. She has served our city as a Port Commissioner for over 15 years. She has the courage to make decisions that promote the visual beauty of our waterfront while being keenly aware of the need to support smart business opportunities.

Kim is active on numerous non profit boards; most notably she is a committed member of the board of directors for the Museum of the African Diaspora and the Bayview Hunters Point YMCA in her neighborhood.

I believe Kim will continue to work effectively with her colleagues and the staff of the Port to ensure San Francisco's waterfront continues to showcase the beauty of the City.

Sincerely,

Cheryl Smith, MA

RE: Reappointment of Commissioner Kimberly Brandon to the Port Commission

Dear Supervisor Breed:

As I am currently out of the country and unable to be present at the Rules Committee, I am writing you today to express my strong and unequivocal support for Kimberly Brandon and to urge you to reappoint her to the Port Commission.

I have served on the Port Commission since May 2011 with Kim Brandon. She has impressed me as an exemplary commissioner in terms of her knowledge, commitment and attendance. As the longest serving Port Commissioner, she has ensured great continuity at the Port and provides me and our fellow commissioners with important historical insights. She has excellent community ties and is very conscientious in advocating for the LBE community in all of the Port's initiatives. We have an excellent working relationship and she is currently serving ably as my Vice President. Kim has held officer positions, including President, with the Commission in the past and demonstrated her leadership abilities and balanced judgment. Kim is also well regarded and highly recognized as a leader in the community by other key stakeholders on the waterfront.

As you know, the Port Commission has a very full but exciting agenda to address on the waterfront. Currently, the Commission is comprised of commissioners with a variety of backgrounds and skill sets. We collaborate well with each other, with the Executive Director and Port staff. We complement each other extremely well and Kim Brandon is a valued contributor on the team.

For all of the above reasons, I strongly recommend that her term be renewed for the good of the Port, the Commission and the City of San Francisco.

If you should have any further questions, please do not hesitate to contact me at 415-203-8023.

Sincerely,

Doreen Woo Ho
President, San Francisco Port Commission

RE: Reappointment of Port Commissioner Brandon

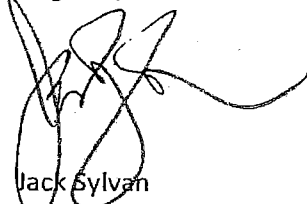

Dear Supervisors,

I understand that Port Commissioner Kimberly Brandon will be considered for reappointment to the Commission by the Rules Committee at its June 6 meeting. Commissioner Brandon has been a dedicated member of the Port Commission for several years. During that time she has maintained a commitment to advancing the goals of the Port while also seeking to ensure that the southeast sector of the city gets the attention it deserves.

With regard to Forest City's involvement in the Pier 70 Waterfront Site, Commissioner Brandon has advocated strongly for the Port's interests, yet also treated us as true partners in an opportunity to create something that we can all be proud of.

I wholeheartedly support the re-appointment of Commissioner Brandon to the Port Commission.

Dear Supervisor Yee:

Thank you for your service to the City and your support for the reappointment of Kimberly Brandon to the San Francisco Port Commission. Like you, she is devoted to public service and has served the City of San Francisco with extraordinary distinction. Her service on the Port Commission and in the community has been an honor with unparalleled merit seldom achieved in our noble City.

The credit she has brought to women, minorities and to followers of the Port Commission is an extraordinary bonus to our community. Her representation of the African American community in the esoteric field of maritime leadership is an honor beyond comprehension.

Your own experience of the growth and development of the Port Commission activity over the past 16 years should warrant nothing but the utmost and highest commendation. I do not need to go into the details of the progress and improvements of the overall Port operation during these critical years in comparison with the past or other City Departments.

I know that you know within your heart that her service is among the highest the City has seen and deserves to be continued with your strongest support for her contribution to city government. Thank you again for your support for her reappointment to the Port Commission as a member of the Rules Committee and honored Board of Supervisors.

As a member of your generation, you both should be commended for the credit you bring to your forbearers. Thanks again

Sincerely,

Sam Tadesse

Re: Support for Reappointment of Kimberly Brandon

Dear Honorable Members Yee, Breed, and Cohen,

I am writing this letter in support of Ms. Brandon's reappointment to the San Francisco Port Commission. I am especially appreciative of Ms. Brandon's advocacy for and outreach to the small, minority-, and women-owned business community in San Francisco. She has been instrumental in assuring that the Port is proactive and inclusive in its contracting practices and diligently follows through on compliance with participation goals and, significantly to her credit, participation at the prime contractor and developer levels of involvement. I am personally appreciative of her accomplishments in promoting opportunities for small businesses to participate in significant large-scale waterfront projects during her years as a Commissioner. I am confident she will continue such efforts in connection with the major improvements planned for deteriorated piers, construction and operations of the Cruise Terminal, development of Seawall Lot 337/Pier 48, 8 Washington, and the Warriors Arena, to name a few.

Also laudable is her engagement of the neighboring communities where the Port is located to ensure that a fair and equitable outcome is achieved in the Commission's decision-making processes. As a native San Franciscan, Ms. Brandon remains vested in the well-being of the City-at-large and is proactive in staying attuned to and participating in the issues and concerns that bear on the well-being of us all. At the risk of sounding trite, it is easy to say that she not only talks the talk, she walks the walks!

Yours truly,

Todd W. Clayter
