[Community Gardening Weekend - August 9-12, 2012]

Resolution welcoming the members of the American Community Gardening Association to San Francisco for their 33rd National Conference and proclaiming August 9-12, 2012, as Community Gardening Weekend in the City and County of San Francisco.

WHEREAS, The 2012 American Community Gardening Association (ACGA) Conference will be held for the first time in San Francisco on August 9 – 12, 2012; and

WHEREAS, The Department of Public Works is helping coordinate this event which brings together hundreds of individuals from across the United States, Canada, and abroad, who are engaged in all aspects of gardening and greening; and

WHEREAS, The San Francisco conference will include research presentations, keynote speakers, state-of-the-art hands-on workshops, cooking classes, and guided tours to San Francisco's distinctive urban community gardens around the City; and

WHEREAS, The conference features a full-day pre-conference workshop titled "Think Outside the Plot", co-sponsored by San Francisco Parks Alliance and the San Francisco Planning and Urban Research Association (SPUR), which will focus on the food system from production through waste - with the seasonal cycle of a community garden providing a launching point for a discussion of broader issues; and

WHEREAS, Conference sessions will focus on many topics such as soil management, bugs and pesticide reform, farmer's markets, transforming land issues, seed libraries, vertical gardening, aguaponics, and gardening in underserved communities; and

WHEREAS, San Francisco is honored to be selected to host this year's ACGA Conference as we not only have so much to offer on the subject of community gardening, but we can inspire folks with our ground-breaking and much emulated environmental practices, our cutting edge urban agriculture legislation and with our approach to engaging the community; now therefore, be it
