Hi Brent,
Please include this statement in the legislative history file. Thank you!

The San Francisco Human Services Agency (SFHSA) seeks a retroactive approval from the Board of Supervisors for a grant with the San Francisco Marin Food Bank, beginning July 1, 2023 and ending June 30, 2024. This is a retroactive request because SFHSA had to wait for the FY 23/24 food coordination budget to be approved by the Board of Supervisor's Budget and Appropriations Committee in late June before initiating a contract extension with the Food Bank. After the budget was approved by the full Board of Supervisors, SFHSA then needed to seek approval for the grant from SFHSA's Human Services Commission, which occurred on August 24, 2023. Upon approval by the Human Services Commission, SFHSA immediately requested that this contract approval item be introduced as soon as the Board returned from recess on September 5.

Good morning,

The message below will suffice as the statement on retroactivity. It will be printed and published as part of the legislative history file and distributed among the members; if you'd rather have a cleaner version published without the rest of the conversation kindly send me an email before Thursday when I compile the agenda packets.

Best,

Brent Jalipa
