3 Resolution declaring on the occasion of Aung San Suu Kyi's 60th birthday, June 19th,
4 2005 as "Aung San Suu Kyi Day" in the City and County of San Francisco.

5 WHEREAS, for more than four decades, Burma's military junta has ruled by decree 6 and is not bound by constitutional provisions providing any fundamental human rights; and 7

8 WHEREAS, Abuses by government security forces are well documented and include 9 rape, torture, extra-judicial killings, arbitrary arrests, incommunicado detentions, infringements 10 on citizens' privacy, forced relocations and conscription of child soldiers; and 11

12 WHEREAS, the ruling government junta continues to detain hundreds of political 13 prisoners, including Aung San Suu Kyi, Nobel Peace Prize Laureate of 1991, who consistently 14 continues to courageously champion the causes of democracy and justice for the people of 15 Burma, despite being in and out of arrest and detention ever since she became the people's 16 leader in the 1988 democracy uprisings; and

17 WHEREAS, the current regime in Burma has been condemned for:

- 18 (a) Ignoring the results of the 1990 elections that resulted in a landslide victory by Aung
19 San Suu Kyi's "National League for Democracy (NLD)" Party
20 (b) Severely restricting fundamental human rights enshrined in the UN's "Universal 21 Declaration of Human Rights," including freedom of speech, press, assembly, 22 association, religion and movement
23 (c) Abuse of its own people in the failure of the state to combat vigorously against 24 trafficking of women and children

1 (d) Severe violations of the "International Religious Freedom Act" and consequently 2 designated as a "Country of Particular Concern (CPC)" by the U.S. Secretary of State
3 in September 2004;

4 WHEREAS, the people of San Francisco have a history of concern, compassion and 5 involvement with human rights struggles around the world and the City & County of San 6 Francisco has a tradition of going on record to support these ideals; and

7 WHEREAS, The City and County of San Francisco enacted legislation in 1997
8 prohibiting the City from entering into contracts with businesses with financial ties to the 9 Burmese (Myanmar) military junta; now, therefore be it
