SEAN
MONTERROSA
BLVD

WHO'S SEAN

Sean was a valued community member and beloved son of San Francisco. Through his experiences he learned to prioritize active involvement within his community and mentored other at-risk youth. Sean's friends and colleagues at Horizons—a youth organization where Sean worked as a coordinator in training, described him as “compassionate, kind, and thoughtful,” and a “natural born leader.”

COMMUNITY INSTALLATIONS

Sean was a burgeoning artist before his life was cut short. Honoring Sean's legacy is multifaceted, creative and generates imagination. A recently completed permanent mural on 24th and South Van Ness in San Francisco serves as a tangible reminder of his impact on the community and part of our narrative work.

Call for justice hits billboard in Vallejo

By Lauren Hernández

Sean Monterrosa's sisters led dozens of masked marchers past the Vallejo Police Department on Sunday. They headed toward a new billboard adjacent to the police headquarters that reads, "Justice for Sean Monterrosa," along with an illustration of Monterrosa, the 22-year-old San Francisco resident shot to death by Vallejo police on June 2.

Michelle and Ashley Monterrosa, 24 and 20, respectively, took the crowd through residential streets, around the police department and past their necks.

Hello,

My letter is attached as a pdf. I also pasted the text below.

Best,
Miguel Espinosa

My name is Miguel Espinosa and I am writing to support a commemorative street naming for Sean Monterrosa. Sean was a community member and a victim of police violence. His story has changed the cultural landscape in the bay area and inspired many discussions about how to become more community minded. He was a regular dude who many different types of people in the diverse bay area could relate to. Regular working class people can feel like their perspectives matter and that the street names reflect people who are just like them.

Dear Board of Supervisors,

My husband Gerry Courtney and I are writing to express our enthusiastic support for the proposal to have a commemorative street plaque placed on the corner of Park Street at Holly Park Circle (near the fire station) in honor of Sean Monterrosa. Having had the privilege of knowing Sean growing up on Park street, we firmly believe that this commemorative gesture is a fitting tribute to Sean's remarkable short life and tragic ending.

Sean touched the lives of countless individuals. We have witnessed the family's tireless advocacy for social justice, dedication to community service, and incredible significant cultural contributions.

Having a commemorative street plaque in honor of Sean not only pays tribute to him and allows Sean's family, friends and neighbors to reflect upon Sean's contributions to our neighborhood.

So many of our neighbors are in awe of Sean's sisters, Michelle and Ashley for all the time and energy they have expended to bring a sense of justice to this senseless murder of their brother and have learned how to bring our community together to fight injustice. Our family has lived here for over 33 years. We host our neighbors at least four times a year at community potluck bonfires in front of our house. This is a very close knit block and we think that most of them would agree that this plaque is the right thing to do.

We urge you to consider this proposal with the utmost sincerity and respect, recognizing the profound impact Sean Monterrosa has had on our community. May this gesture serve as a lasting tribute to him.

With warm regards,

Lisa Bishop

To whom it may concern,

Renaming a street for a strong community member is very validating for the Mission San Francisco, Sean Monterrosa, who was slain by Vallejo PD while holding his hands up in SURRENDER during one of America's most high profile protests of police brutality deserves to be commemorated for his commitment to our community as well as his bravery under duress and compliance with the law especially while enduring an intense situation with the protest going on in the Bay Area. Sean was and now may be even a bigger part of what makes SF locals feeling so involved in the community. Let's love our City!!!

Thank you,

Hello,

Sean Monterrossa was a beloved son and brother who was unjustly murdered. He was so young and had a full life ahead of him. Now his family and friends are left to grieve his loss. I can only imagine the pain and anger they experience.

Sean deserves the commemoration of his life by naming a street after him, at the very least. Please support file 240135. We should daily both celebrate his life and commit ourselves to solving the systemic societal problems that allow for murders like his to occur. While I believe that we must all commit our energies to dismantling the system of policing in this country, which is rooted in racism and the history of slavery, I also think you should commemorate the life of Sean Monterrossa by naming a street after him whether or not you share my belief. It will serve as a reminder of the civil rights issues we still face and all the work we still need to do to realize a just society based in equality.

Hello SF Board of Supervisors,

I am writing in support of the renaming of a street in memory of Sean Monterrosa, a beloved community member who was murdered by Vallejo police officer Jarret Ton during the 2020 George Floyd uprisings. Sean's family has worked so hard to uplift his name and to expose the corruption in the Vallejo Police Department that continues to unfold. The city should honor their work by renaming a street for Sean so his legacy will live on in SF history.

Mr. Carroll,

I have just become aware of the hearing to change the name of Park Street to honor Sean Monterrosa.

Given that written notice is required to build a deck or make changes to our homes I'd think written notice to all property owners on Park Street like myself would be required.

I am completely unaware of any contributions to the street or neighborhood by Mr. Monterrosa. I stand against police violence but I don't believe renaming Park Street is appropriate.

Thank you for noting my opposition to this change.

APTP Letter of Support for the Commemorative Street Sign for Sean Monterrosa

To Whom It May Concern,

The Anti Police-Terror Project supports the creation of a commemorative street sign for Sean Monterrosa in San Francisco, CA. Sean and his family have had an indelible impact on San Francisco and the Bay Area.

We miss Sean everyday and we mourn this tremendous loss - not only for his family but for the entire San Francisco Bay Area community. This street sign would be a lasting reminder of the beautiful and passionate community member that Sean was and of the immense impact he and his family have had on us all.

Sean was born and raised in San Francisco and his family and friends remain there. This commemorative sign is not only for them to see, but for the greater San Francisco community to see in order to keep his memory alive.

The powerful organizing that his family is doing in his name is keeping his memory alive and contributes to the ongoing and historical culture of art, justice and resistance in San Francisco. To acknowledge his name with this sign holds deep meaning for many who love him and who follow in his footsteps of activism and advocacy.
