Subject: File No. 211292. Ordinance amending the Public Works Code to regulate vending, require permits for vending, and authorize permit fees and enforcement actions; amending provisions of the Administrative, Business and Tax Regulations, Park, and Police Codes to conform with those amendments; amending the Port Code to merge its permit program with the Public Works permit program; repealing reporting provisions from the Health Code; and adopting findings under the California Environmental Quality Act.

If this legislation passes, Public Works Code, Article 5.9, will establish a new regulatory program for street and sidewalk vendors who will be required to pay a permit fee to vend food, merchandise, or both. Public Works shall identify the reasonable regulatory costs for the administrative enforcement and any adjudication, including but not limited to the costs to issue the permit, perform investigations, conduct inspections, issue administrative citations or other enforcement actions, and audit permittees. Public Works shall charge applicants for each vendor permit and permit renewal, an amount not to exceed the reasonable regulatory costs determined. Separate fees may be applied by the Tax Collector under Business and Tax Regulations Code, Article 12, and the Department of Public Health under Health Code, Section 452. In addition, separate annual fees may apply and be payable to the Tax Collector, Department of Public Health, and the Port Fire Marshal for any approvals required by each department. The fees due may include the actual costs that other agencies, boards, commissions, or departments of the City incur in connection with the processing or administration of Public Works Code, Article 5.9; which shall be waived in accordance with California
