6 California Government Code Sections 50280 et seq. The Mills Act authorizes local 7 governments to enter into contracts with owners of private historical property who will

9 the rehabilitation, restoration, preservation and maintenance of the qualified historical 10 property, the City and County of San Francisco may provide certain property tax reductions in 12 1 of the California Revenue and Taxation Code.

13 (b) San Francisco contains many historic buildings ~~which~~ that add to its character
14 and international reputation. Many of these buildings have not been adequately maintained, 15 may be structurally deficient, or may need rehabilitation. The costs of properly rehabilitating, 16 restoring and preserving historic buildings may be prohibitive for property owners.
17 Implementation of the Mills Act in San Francisco will make the benefits of the Mills Act 18 available to many property owners.

19 (c) The benefits of the Mills Act to the individual property owners must be balanced
20 with the cost to the City and County of San Francisco of providing the property tax reductions 21 set forth in the Mills Act as well as the historical value of individual buildings proposed for 22 historical property contracts, and the resultant property tax reductions, under the Mills Act.

23 SEC. 71.2. QUALIFIED HISTORIC PROPERTY.

24 An owner, or an authorized agent of the owner, of a qualified historical property may

6 such decision shall be final unless the property owner files an appeal with the Clerk of the Board of 7 Supervisors within 10 days of the final action of the Historic Preservation Commission. Failure of the 8 Historic Preservation Commission to act with the 60-day time limit shall constitute a recommendation 9 of approval for the purposes of this subsection, and the Planning Department shall forward the 10 application for the historical property contract to the Board of Supervisors for its action; provided, 11 however, that the Board of Supervisors by resolution may grant an extension of time to the Historic 12 Preservation Commission for its review.
