Mr. Mark Buell, President
San Francisco Recreation & Park Commission
501 Stanyan Street
San Francisco, CA 94117

Dear President Buell:

I am happy to inform you of the success of San Francisco Parks Alliance's (SFPA) Park Partner group Friends of Lafayette Park Playground Committee, which is leading the way in raising additional funds for the playground, leveraging the investment of 2008 Clean and Safe Neighborhood Parks Bond dollars. We request that you accept an in-kind gift valued at $195,017.53 for playground design and construction documents.

The goal of the Committee is to take this opportunity to create a unique and special playground for children of all ages, befitting this renowned park. Based on community input and the design of renowned landscape architect, Jeff Miller, the enlarged playground will be a unique outdoor play space for kids up to age 12. The ADA-compliant design includes innovative features like a dry creek with old-fashioned water pumps and a gorge to climb, as well as swing sets for toddlers and bigger kids, slides, and a merry-go-round.

SFPA's Park Partners Program mentors more than 100 community groups across San Francisco in supporting RPD, raising funds, and stewarding their local, neighborhood park(s) and recreation center(s).

SFPA looks forward to continuing and expanding the Park Partners Program and the benefits it generates for San Francisco parks and recreation.

Sincerely,

Matt O'Grady on behalf of Rosemary Cameron
