JUVENILE ACCOUNTABILITY BLOCK GRANT (JABG)
NOTICE OF FUNDING AVAILABILITY

April 15, 2012

To: City Managers and County Administrative Officers
Current JABG Project Directors and Financial Officers

From: Robert Takeshta, Executive Director (A)
Corrections Standards Authority

Re: Fiscal Year (FY) 2012-13 Juvenile Accountability Block Grants (JABG)
Funding

The Corrections Standards Authority (CSA) is pleased to announce the federal JABG funding for FY 2012-13. The Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention (OJJDP) has posted the JABG funding for California, which includes the direct allocations for 38 local jurisdictions. This year the federal allocation amount experienced a significant reduction from that received in the 2011-12 allocation. To help offset this reduction, local jurisdictions that meet the threshold for receiving a direct allocation will receive an additional amount of funding (see attached). This comes as a result of an excess in discretionary JABG funding that remains unspent and if unused, these funds revert back to the federal government rather than directly benefiting the California local programs that qualify for JABG funding. In an attempt to maximize the fiscal support of local programs, these funds are being redirected to serve their intended purpose. Although this enhancement was available to augment the 2011/12 allocation and is available again this year, it should be considered as a one-time funding opportunity and is dependent upon unspent discretionary JABG funds available year-to-year.

Attached to this letter is the FY 2012-13 application packet for those jurisdictions that are eligible to apply for a direct allocation. The application packet can also be accessed from the CSA website at www.cdcr.ca.gov/Divisions_Boards/CSA/.

The FY 2012-13 application follows a similar format to that of last year's application document. The funding cycle for this program is a 12-month period beginning July 1, 2012 and ending June 30, 2013.

As in previous years, a qualifying unit of local government may waive its right to a direct subgrant award and request that the funds be awarded to, and expended for its benefit by, a larger or contiguous unit of local government.

California's State Advisory Committee on Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention (SACJJD), which oversees the use of federal funds administered by CSA, identified three priority areas in their new three-year Strategic Plan on which California is to focus its efforts. The three priority areas are: Disproportionate Minority Contact, Evidence-Based Practices, and a strategy to support efforts to develop and strengthen services, programs, and policies that promote positive outcomes for youth, their families, and communities. The SACJJD encourages JABG recipients to align the use of their direct allocation with the three priority areas that are identified in the SACJJD's Strategic Plan.

As in the past, grantees will be asked to support California's efforts to expand the knowledge of Disproportionate Minority Contact (DMC) by attending a one-day regional training on DMC. Grantees will be notified when registration information regarding the date, time and location of the regional trainings becomes available.

Please note that on July 1, 2012 pursuant to Senate Bill 92, the CSA, currently a division of the California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation, will cease to exist and the Board of State and Community Corrections (BSCC) will be created. All of the duties and personnel of the CSA will transfer to the BSCC. The BSCC will be an independent agency reporting directly to the Governor. The JABG application and related contract documents that are needed to process 2012/13 JABG funding will reflect this transfer of authority.

Should you have questions regarding this funding notice, please contact the JABG Coordinator, Colleen Stoner, at 916/324-9385; colleen.stoner@cdcr.ca.gov

Juvenile Accountability Block Grant Program (JABG)

Direct Allocation
Grants Application
Packet

Overview of Grant Award

The Juvenile Accountability Block Grants (JABG) Program, administered at the federal level by the Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention (OJJDP), supports state and local efforts to reduce juvenile crime through programs that focus on offender accountability (Public Law 107-273). As the designated state agency for this federally funded program, the Corrections Standards Authority (CSA) distributes the Federal annual allocations to those local jurisdictions meeting the federal funding threshold to receive a direct allocation. The grant year will cover July 1, 2012 through June 30, 2013. Please note that on July 1, 2012 pursuant to Senate Bill 92, the CSA, currently a division of the California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation, will cease to exist and the Board of State and Community Corrections (BSCC) will be created. All of the duties and personnel of the CSA will transfer to the BSCC. The BSCC will be an independent agency reporting directly to the Governor. The JABG application and related contract documents that are needed to process 2012/13 JABG funding will reflect this transfer of authority.

This year, local jurisdictions that meet the threshold for receiving a direct allocation will receive an additional amount of funding (see Appendix A). This opportunity comes as a result of an excess in discretionary JABG funding that remains unspent. If unused, these funds revert back to the federal government rather than directly benefiting the California local programs that qualify for JABG funding. In an attempt to maximize the fiscal support of local programs, these funds are being redirected to serve their intended purpose. Although this enhancement was also available to augment the 2011/12 allocation and is available again this year, it should be considered as a one-time funding opportunity. Future availability of these funds is dependent upon unspent discretionary JABG funding remaining on a year-to-year to year basis.

California's State Advisory Committee on Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention (SACJJDP), which oversees the use of federal funds administered by CSA, identified three priority areas in their new three-year Strategic Plan on which California is to focus its efforts. The three priority areas are:

1. Disproportionate Minority Contact – includes direct services, education/awareness, and support through resources and advocacy to address any disparities in the decision-making processes within the juvenile justice system that impact youth of color and the corresponding disproportionality of youth of color coming into contact with the juvenile justice system.
2. Evidence-Based Practices - places an emphasis on achieving measurable outcomes and making sure that the services provided and the resources used are effective. It involves using research-based, and scientific studies to identify interventions that reliably produce significant reductions in recidivism, when correctly applied to offender populations through the use of the following four principles of effective intervention:
 - a. Risk Principle – focuses on attention on the crucial question of WHO is being served and calls for targeting the highest risk offenders.
 - b. Need Principle – requires that priority be given to addressing criminogenic risk/need factors with a clear focus on WHAT programs are delivered.
 - c. Treatment Principle – conveys the importance of using behavioral treatment approaches to achieve the best possible outcomes and requires attention to the questions of HOW programs are delivered.

- d. Fidelity Principle – draws attention to HOW WELL programs are delivered and reiterates the necessity that programs be implemented as designed.

Successful implementation of EBP includes organizational development to create and sustain a culture accepting of best practices and evidence-based approaches, including a commitment to initial and ongoing professional development and training, use of validated risk/needs assessment tools, data collection and analysis, use of programs and practices known to produce positive criminal justice outcomes, quality assurance assessments to ensure program fidelity, performance management to improve programs and policies, a “systems change approach” to develop collaborations so that tasks, functions and sub-units work effectively together and not at cross-purposes, and a focus on sustainability.

3. A strategy to support efforts to develop and strengthen services, programs, and policies that promote positive outcomes for youth, their families, and communities – focuses on system improvement of juvenile detention policy and practice and may include programs, research, and other initiatives to examine issues or improve practices, policies, or procedures on a system wide basis (e.g., examining problems affecting decisions from arrest to disposition and detention to corrections).

The SACJJDP encourages JABG recipients to align the use of their direct allocation with the three priority areas identified in the SACJJDP’s Strategic Plan.

Application Requirements

Due Date: This application is due to the CSA via e-mail by June 1, 2012. A signed, hard copy of the application is to follow, submitted by the applicant via U.S. mail.

Eligible Applicants: Units of local government meeting the minimum federal funding threshold are eligible to apply for the formula-based direct allocation. Please refer to Appendix A for a listing of eligible units of local government, including the federally determined grant amount for each. Localities shall designate an implementing agency for the grant project.

Local Advisory Board: Under federal law, a local advisory board must review a Coordinated Enforcement Plan (CEP) outlining how JABG funds will be expended. For the purpose of this grant, ~~this application is the CEP. The board must include, if appropriate, representatives from the police, sheriff and probation departments, district attorney's office, juvenile court, education, social services, a nonprofit and nongovernmental victim advocacy organization, and a nonprofit religious or community group.~~ Grantees may use an existing advisory board with similar membership (e.g., Juvenile Justice Coordinating Council) to meet this requirement.

Local Match: Applicants must assure that they will contribute a cash match of 10% of the total project costs (see Appendix A for required match amounts based on the federal formula which requires match to be computed by dividing the funding allocated by 0.9 x 1.0). Applicants opting to use JABG funds to construct new and permanent detention facilities must provide a 50% cash match. Matching funds may be either state or local dollars. Federal funds are not an allowable match source.

Eligible Expenditures: Grantees must expend JABG funds for projects that fall within the 17 federally designated program purpose areas, with a focus on juvenile accountability. Please see Appendix B for information on the JABG program purpose areas and performance measures. Additionally, the California SACJJD strongly encourages JABG recipients to align the use of their direct allocation with the three priority areas identified in their strategic plan.

Disbursement of Grant Funds: Disbursement of grant funds occurs on a reimbursement basis for actual project costs incurred during a reporting period. Grantees must submit invoices online to the CSA on a quarterly basis, within 45 days following the end of the reporting period. Grantees must maintain adequate supporting documentation for all costs, both grant and match, claimed on invoices.

Federal Performance Measure: Federal regulations require JABG grantees to select a program purpose area(s) from the JABG program list and report specific data pertaining to the area(s) identified. Grantees will report data to the CSA on a quarterly basis via progress reports.

Resolution: Applicants must submit a resolution from their governing board (City Council or Board of Supervisors) addressing specific requirements. Please see Attachment C for a Sample Resolution. The resolution must be on file with the CSA prior to a finalized grant award agreement.

Waivers: A qualifying unit of local government may waive its right to a direct grant award and request that such unit's funds be awarded to and expended for its benefit by a larger or contiguous unit of local government. Please see Attachment D for the pertinent waiver documentation.

Disproportionate Minority Contact Training: To receive federal funding, the state of California is required to demonstrate a good faith effort to address Disproportionate Minority Contact (DMC). DMC refers to the overrepresentation of youth of color who come into contact with the juvenile justice system (at all points, from arrest through confinement) relative to their numbers in the general population. In an effort to comply with this requirement, the CSA has undertaken a number of activities to ensure that California addresses DMC. Accordingly, JABG recipients are invited to attend a one day regional DMC training for project directors and other interested staff which will be provided during the program year.

Viewing direct service for at-risk youth through the DMC lens not only complements the principles of the JABG program but can effectively influence the impact of current interventions. The regional DMC courses will be provided at no cost to attendees and address issues relevant to participants who have received previous training as well as those attending DMC training for the first time. Two trainings will be offered; one for the northern region and one for the southern region. JABG funding may be used to reimburse agencies for travel related expenditures such as mileage, meals, lodging if required, and other per diem costs. Applicants should include these costs in the budget section of this application. Registration information regarding the date, time and location of the regional trainings will be sent to all project directors. Additional information about DMC can be found at <http://www.cdcr.ca.gov/CSA/PPP/Grants/DMC/Index.html> or applicants may contact DMC Coordinator, Shalinee Hunter, at 916/322-8081; Shalinee.hunter@cdcr.ca.gov.

Complete Application Submittal: A complete application includes the application document, Federal Performance Measures form(s) and governing body's resolution. Additionally, waiver documents are required from any applicant receiving funds waived from another locality.

Progress Reports: Grantees must submit quarterly progress reports, including the mandatory federal data and project progress notes, utilizing the JABG Progress Report form provided on the CSA website www.cdcr.ca.gov/Divisions_Boards/CSA/.

The Federal Funding Accountability and Transparency Act: The intent of the Federal Funding Accountability and Transparency Act (FFATA) is to empower every American with the ability to hold the government accountable for each spending decision. The end result is to reduce wasteful spending in the government. The FFATA legislation requires information on federal awards (federal financial assistance and expenditures) be made available to the public via a single, searchable website, which is www.USASpending.gov.

The FFATA Subaward Reporting System (FSRS) is the reporting tool Federal prime awardees (i.e. prime contractors and prime grants recipients) use to capture and report subaward and executive compensation data regarding their first-tier sub awards to meet the FFATA reporting requirements. Prime contract awardees will report against sub-contracts awarded and prime grant awardees will report against subgrants awarded. The subaward information entered in FSRS will then be displayed on www.USASpending.gov associated with the prime award furthering Federal spending transparency.

It is possible that funding used to support the 2012/13 JABG grant activities will trigger the FFATA reporting requirement. Should this occur we will contact your agency to obtain the information needed to report into the FSRS.

Audit: Grantees must submit an audit of expenditures within 120 days of the end of the grant period. Reasonable and necessary extensions to the timeframe may be granted if requested. Grantees may choose to submit either a program specific audit or a federal single audit.

All youth who are committed to out of home placement by the San Francisco Superior Court are in detention. The attorney represents youth who are committed to out of home placement. The attorney immediately assesses the client for his/her individualized needs, works collaboratively with the placement division of the juvenile probation department to identify the appropriate placement in order to expedite the clients from detention. She has been able to reduce the detention/placement delay time from historical highs of 3-6 months to 2-3 weeks for her clients. She will monitor and maintain close contact with the clients and their families to address needs and concerns. She will advocate for the educational and mental health needs of the clients by participating in their IEP school hearings. By addressing the legal and ancillary holistic needs of the clients, there has been a reduction in AWOL's, program termination, and recidivism. Due to the success of this program, the placement attorney will now expand her services to represent public defender clients returning from county camp and other long term commitments. The placement attorney will serve up to 125 unduplicated youths per year. The Placement attorney will work collaboratively with a dedicated reentry team including a probation officer, community based case management youth advocate and judge. The attorney will incorporate evidence-based practices such as Team Decision Making with youth and their families, risk-need assessment through the Youth Assessment and Screening Instrument (YASI) and Child and Adolescent Needs and Strengths (CANS), coordination by a collaborative court, and individualized case planning coordinated jointly with supervision and aftercare staff and beginning immediately after commitment from an out of home placement, ranch, or other long term commitment.

SECTION II- PROJECT INFORMATION

A. PROJECT DESCRIPTION:

Part I: In the space below #5, provide the following project information:

1. Describe the project(s)/program(s) to be supported with JABG funds.
2. Define project goals and major activities/services.
3. Define the juvenile justice population(s) to be served by the project, including the estimated number of youth.

4. Support the project need with local data/information.
5. Describe staffing, including classification and number of staff required to achieve project goals.

Public Defender Placement Program:

1. The Public Defender Placement Program will support one full time staff attorney to represent youth who have been committed to out of home placement, ranch and other long term commitments. This representation will begin immediately upon commitment and will continue for the youth throughout their entire period of probation.
2. The project goals and major activities/services include:
 - i. Direct referrals to appropriate residential programs
 - ii. Identification of placement needs through conferencing with minor/family and other reentry team members including thorough review of relevant, social, psychological and school reports.
 - iii. Close collaboration and monitoring of placement efforts with the probation department and the Court through regular meetings, court hearings, contacts with family members, and contacts with client and placement representatives.
 - iv. Unreasonable delays are brought to the court's attention to ensure accountability.
 - v. Youth involved in multiple systems, such as mental health, special education, or foster care can result in extended detention delays. The attorney collaborates with the reentry team to identify the proper identification of services among multiple systems to expedite timely and appropriate placement. The attorney will advocate in school disciplinary and school Individualized Education Plan hearing for the youth to ensure that they are in the appropriate school setting and that they are receiving the necessary special education services for the youth.
 - vi. Cooperation and coordination of reentry team and other key service providers reduces placement detention time. Regular case conferencing and communication reduces inefficiencies and improves placement and reentry outcomes for youth.
 - vii. Maintain regular contact with placement clients to address, needs, problems and concern in order to achieve successful graduation from placement and successful reentry to the community.
 - viii. Ensure proper case plans are developed and individualized to minor's needs and complied with to promote family reunification and public safety.
 - ix. Reduce number of youth in out of home placement or detention through effective utilization of community resources and family involvement.
 - x. Engage family members of clients with early outreach and family assessment to determine needs of the minor for eventual reentry to the community.
 - xi. The attorney will advocate in school disciplinary and school Individualized Education Plan hearings for the youth to ensure that they are in the appropriate school setting and that they are receiving the necessary special education services for the youth.

3. Cases per FY:

125 youth per year
50 education advocacy cases

4. Over the past 15 years, San Francisco has established itself as a national leader in developing alternatives to secure detention for juvenile justice involved youth and in establishing innovative community-based aftercare programs. Consistent with a nationwide trend of declining juvenile arrests, San Francisco's juvenile arrest rate declined 46.3% from 1995 to 2005. Since 200, San Francisco juvenile detention have declined by 52%. The number of youth ordered to the California Division of Juvenile Justice has also decreased dramatically, with only 8 San Francisco youth committed there since 2007, a 58% decline since 2000. No Public Defender client has been committed to DJJ since 2004. Due to the Juvenile Collaborative Reentry Team (JCRT) of which the placement attorney is an active team member, San Francisco has seen continued success in reducing juvenile arrest and detentions. However that success comes despite the ongoing disparities in arrest and detention rates. The majority of juvenile-justice-involved youth in San Francisco are African Americans and Latinos originating from specific, low-income communities with high levels of violence and gang activity. In 2011, African American and Latino youth comprised 48.34% and 27.55% of juvenile probation referrals, respectively, despite the fact that African American juveniles make up only 12% of San Francisco youth ages 10 to 17, and Latino juveniles make up only 23%. In 2008, 108 of San Francisco's 205 out of home placement (53%) ended in placement failure, with African American and Latino youth comprising 72% and 21% of placement failures, respectively (SF Juvenile Probation Department). Most of the placement failures were non-public defender clients. Thanks in part to the JCRT program and the dedicated full time placement attorney, those numbers have improved significantly with only 31% of out of home placements in 2011 ending in placement failure. The disproportionality continues, with African American and Latino youth making up 65% and 21% of those failures thereby indicating a need to continue placement advocacy for youth of color.
5. The staffing for the Public Defender Placement Program will include the full time attorney position.

Part II: Further identify the target population for your program by completing the table below. Place an "X" next to at least one population segment (or "not applicable") in each of the six designated areas. Multiple boxes may be checked in any one area. Each "X" shall indicate the populations, if any, to which the program intends to offer targeted services. Targeted services include any services or approaches specifically designed to meet the needs of the population (e.g. gender specific, culturally based, developmentally appropriate services).

PROGRAM PURPOSE AREA(S): All funded projects must fall within one or more federally recognized purpose areas established for JABG. Appendix B includes a detailed listing of the 17 program purpose areas from which each applicant must choose. Each separate purpose area identified in this section will require subsequent data reporting on quarterly progress reports to the CSA. For this reason applicants are encouraged to consolidate their programs into one program purpose area whenever possible. In addition to the Program Purpose areas, California's State Advisory Committee on Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention (SACJJDP), which oversees the use of federal funds administered by CSA, encourages JABG recipients to align the use of their direct allocation with the three priority areas that are identified in the SACJJDP's Strategic Plan. The three priority areas are: (1) Disproportionate Minority Contact, (2) Evidence-Based Practices, and (3) a strategy to support efforts to develop and strengthen services, programs, and policies that promote positive outcomes for youth, their families, and communities. More information about these priority areas is provided in the Overview of Grant Award section of this application.

In the space below, please indicate the selected program purpose area(s) by number and topic, and the federal dollar amount allotted to each. (Example: #8 Juvenile Drug Courts - $ 47,189)

#3. Hiring court staff/pretrial services - $117,819

B. FEDERAL PERFORMANCE MEASURES: New this year is a requirement that all grantees report data to the CSA on mandatory Core Measures developed by the OJJDP (see table below). Additionally grantees are to report on the performance indicators for each program purpose area identified in their application. Once a purpose area(s) has been chosen in Section II-B above, applicants are to click the corresponding PDF link(s) below to locate the performance measure grid that identifies the data to be collected and reported. Please note the grid identifies the mandatory measures to be collected in the "Output/Outcome Measures" column and the precise data to be reported in the "Reporting Format" column. Applicants must select at least one Output Measure and one Outcome Measure for each program purpose area identified. In the space below, please indicate the selected program purpose area(s) by number and topic, along with at least one Output Performance Measure and one Outcome Performance Measure that will be reported throughout the grant period. (Example: #8 Juvenile Drug Courts – Output Measure/Number of drug court slots – Outcome Measure/Number and percent of eligible youth to enter the drug court)

#3 Hiring Court Staff/Pretrial Services – Output Measure/number of cases per staff member – Outcome measure/number and percent of cases per staff

Data to be collected will fall into either one or both of the following categories:

- Direct Service - Defined as an actual service with an individual or group which could take the form of mentoring, counseling, or educational activities. The efforts of these services are defined as prevention, intervention, or rehabilitative.
- System Improvement – Defined as efforts to make desired changes in overall practices, policies or procedures through activities such as hiring personnel, providing training or technical assistance, purchasing equipment/supplies or new information systems, or conducting research.

Grantees must determine which category best describes their project, as this will later determine the data to be collected in the quarterly progress reports.
