10 WHEREAS, In response to a troubling time in our nation’s history, Multiplying Good 11 (previously known as the Jefferson Awards Foundation), was founded in 1972 by former First 12 Lady Jaqueline Kennedy Onassis, Senator Robert Taft, Jr., and Sam Beard as a national 13 organization to recognize the positive impact of public service and to amplify the work of local 14 unsung heroes; and

15 WHEREAS, Over the past 50 years, Multiplying Good honored over 63,000 individuals
16 with the prestigious Jefferson Award for their public service and provides a platform to inspire 17 others to discover their potential through the service of others; and

18 WHEREAS, The COVID-19 global pandemic and subsequent local Shelter-in-Place 19 Health Orders left many in our community in crisis and further exacerbated pre-existing 20 systemic conditions in health inequities and economic disparities especially for people of 21 color; and

22 WHEREAS, In a short amount of time, individuals, neighborhoods, businesses, and 23 organizations became activated to serve in big and small ways by volunteering, fundraising, 24 donating, advocating, organizing, skill-sharing, and by risking their lives serving as essential 25 front-line workers; and

1 WHEREAS, Multiplying Good launched the “One in a Million” Award campaign with the 2 goal of recognizing one million individuals and organizations by August 31, 2020, to illuminate 3 the inspirational stories of how every act of kindness, bravery, and generosity can make 4 meaningful change especially during this unprecedented time; and

5 WHEREAS, San Francisco residents, businesses, and organizations reflect the best of 6 human kindness in the profound selflessness demonstrated through the service of others
7 especially supporting the most vulnerable in our community; now, therefore, be it

8 RESOLVED, That the Board of Supervisors urges the City and County of San 9 Francisco to officially participate in Multiplying Good’s “One in a Million” Awards by actively 10 participating in calling for nominations of San Francisco residents, businesses, and 11 organizations who are making a positive difference; and promoting the campaign through 12 social media and other communication channels; and, be it

13 FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Board of Supervisors urges the City and County of 14 San Francisco to nominate notable City and County employees, especially those who have 15 been deployed as Disaster Service Workers, and partnering non-profit workers who are 16 serving our residents during this crisis; and, be it

17 FURTHER RESOLVED, That the Board of Supervisors extends its highest 18 commendation to Multiplying Good for their efforts in recognizing everyday heroes and 19 highlighting positive stories that will inspire hope in others.
