Candidate statement of qualifications as to demographic qualities of the City and County of San Francisco pursuant to Charter section 4.101(a)1

Candidate: Sabrina Hernandez, Business Representative/Compliance Officer, IBEW Local Union 6

In advocacy for women and minorities; increased diversity in the organized trades; economic justice for women, minorities and youth; pathways to high-skill/high-pay careers:

As a minority woman in an industry dominated by white men (electrical construction) I am both fortunate to have achieved my level of professional success and challenged to create new ways in which I can assist other San Francisco women, minorities and youth to enter and succeed in high-skill, high-pay careers in the organized trades. This is why, throughout my career, I have maintained an active role in community based organizations such as Tradeswomen Inc, and in AFL-CIO constituency organizations such as the Electrical Workers Minority Caucus (EWMC), Pride @ Work, and the Coalition of Labor Union Women (CLUW), all of which advocate for the rights of women and minorities at work. I am particularly excited about IBEW Local 6 plans to partner with the San Francisco Unified School District in creating a pre-apprenticeship program for San Francisco high school students interested in exploring industrial careers.

In addition to the aforementioned efforts, I also serve on the Board of Directors of Asian Neighborhood Design ("AND"), a San Francisco non-profit organization that offers architectural design services and a construction trades pre-apprenticeship training program. Most of AND's clients are people of color from disadvantaged economic backgrounds; and the majority are being reintroduced to their communities after recent release from prison.

In efforts to defend the rights of the San Francisco immigrant worker community:

As a business representative and public works contract compliance officer for IBEW Local Union 6, I represent the interests of IBEW members and our management partners; however, much of my work benefits non-unionized immigrant workers primarily from Russia, China, Korea, Mexico, and Central America. As immigrants, many of whom have limited English language skills, these workers are vulnerable and often taken advantage of; paid less than the wages required by law, asked to perform work in unsafe conditions, not compensated for overtime and otherwise abused of their rights. As I monitor public works projects in San Francisco, I often meet workers experiencing these unfortunate and illegal conditions. My position and training allow me to educate them on their rights under the law and assist them in seeking remedies through the San Francisco Office of Labor Standards Enforcement and other authorities having jurisdiction.

In addition to my professional work to defend immigrants, I also volunteer for SF We Rise – The San Francisco Labor Council Center for Immigrant Justice; and I regularly participate at weekend citizenship workshops with the San Francisco Pathways to Citizenship Initiative.

Since 1972, I have lived in the Haight, Noe Valley, Western Addition, Western SOMA, and West of Twin Peaks. I have nearly always traveled as a transit rider, pedestrian, or bicyclist, promoting lifestyle choices that serve people of all classes, ages, ethnicities, and gender/sexual orientations. I arrived in SF with no assets, raised by my mother, sometimes homeless, providing me an empathetic perspective. I feel a responsibility to give back, and to that end, have served in a wide range of volunteer positions. As Chair of the Bicycle Advisory Committee for 13 yrs., I have used the position to meet concerns and desires of others who share our streets, especially seniors, & disabled, the homeless, and women who have suffered from discrimination and exclusion in their home cultures. I have officiated an LGBTQ wedding, and as an elected delegate to the National Boy Scout Organization, played a role in changing their discriminatory policies. Three generations of my family here are bi-racial.

Pursuant to Charter section 4.101 (a)1, please state how your qualifications represent the communities of interest, neighborhoods, and the diversity in ethnicity, race, age, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, types of disabilities, and any other relevant demographic qualities of the City and County of San Francisco:

The Excelsior, my home of more than thirty years and one of the City's last few working-class neighborhoods, has relatively little representation on boards and commissions. I believe it is also one of the most ethnically diverse neighborhoods anywhere. As an Iron Worker organizer, I was a key part of efforts that transformed our local and made it look like California - with the notable exception of having far too few women. As Secretary-Treasurer of the San Francisco Building and Construction Trades Council, I led an organization with a century-plus history of representing workers through a period in which it achieved certainly its greatest diversity ever. While I am Caucasian, my family is as diverse as imaginable. My wife is American-born Chinese; my two sons are half-Chinese. My late stepfather was from Mexico City. I have a brother-in-law from Puerto Rico, and had another from Togo, who gave me a half-Togolese niece. I officiated the wedding of my older sister to her longtime lesbian partner, a Uruguayan Jew. I have Arab and Vietnamese nieces-in-law and an African American nephew-in-law. These are the people I love, and our family is the future of the nation and the present of the City.

Meanwhile I published half a dozen short stories in literary magazines. I traveled alone in South America for several months of 1980.

In 1985 I indentured as an apprentice with Iron Workers Local 377 for the Herrick Corporation on structural steel in high rises. I was named the local's "Outstanding Apprentice" on graduating in 1988. I worked as a field ironworker until June 1999, the last six and a half years with Romak Iron Works, for which I became a general foreman.
