RE: Endgames Improv, LLC - Public Convenience or Necessity
2989 Mission St
San Francisco, CA 94110
Type 90 Original ABC License #90-670142
Application Filed 6/24/2025

To the San Francisco Board of Supervisors, Clerk of the Board

The purpose of this letter is to respectfully request to be placed on the Board's PSNS Subcommittee calendar for Public Convenience and Necessity review for our Type 90 ABC license.

Endgames Improv has operated in San Francisco for more than 15 years; we are a training center and live entertainment venue. With the continued struggles of local theaters and almost every other small theater requiring donations to stay open, theaters need every lifeline we can get.

Endgames stands out as one of the few arts organizations focused on permanent spaces without needing donations or catering to a wealthy clientele. We have 100% financial aid for classes and to my knowledge have not turned anyone down who sincerely requested.

The premises are underutilized at the moment, as we are not a competitive venue for talent to perform without the option of alcohol in the evening. We are uniquely set up to develop new talent based right here in San Francisco, but we need a proper nightlife environment to be able to keep them as they become more polished.

Our primary focus is theater, comedy, and art. These activities are not known to bring crime to an area. When services are provided to community members, it gives folks a place to congregate constructively. In addition, we are going to make certain that alcohol is not the sole focus of our menu. Non-alcoholic options will be available and encouraged.

This request helps a part of San Francisco arts survive. Too often full bars are in control of the local entertainment scene as they allow only the shows that bring in drinkers to perform. Endgames is arts first, with only 10% of our revenue coming from liquor sales in the first year of having a license at our other space.

Last year, we started a yearly comedy festival that will be hosted again in September. Activating our second location enables more performances for more names and audiences coming through town.

We appreciate your consideration of our Type 90 Live Entertainment Venue alcohol license and look forward to many more years of operating in San Francisco.

If you have any questions, you can reach out to me, Scott Meyer, owner of Endgames Improv, LLC as well as my ABC consultant, Jemma Jorel Lester (jemma@properpourco.com / 845-389-3958).
