4 proposed rule requiring verification of immigration status and disqualifying prohibiting 5 mixed immigration-status families from receiving federal housing assistance.

6
7 WHEREAS, Section 214 of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1980, as 8 amended, prohibits the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) from 9 making housing assistance available to persons other than United States citizens or certain 10 categories of eligible noncitizens in programs covered by Section 214; HUD programs 11 covered by Section 214 include public housing and Section 8 rent subsidies; and

12 WHEREAS, Currently, HUD allows families of mixed eligibility status to live together in 13 subsidized housing and prorates the housing subsidy to exclude the ineligible person from the 14 assistance and requires that individuals claiming eligible status and applying to receive 15 housing assistance provide documentation of their eligible immigration status; and

16 WHEREAS, On May 10, 2019, HUD published FR-6124-P-01, a proposed new rule to 17 implement Section 214, on file with the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors in File No. 190773, 18 which is hereby declared to be part of this Resolution as if set forth fully herein, which would 19 require the verification of the eligible immigration status of all recipients of assistance under 20 the age of 62 through Department of Homeland Security's Systematic Alien Verification for 21 Entitlements (SAVE); and

22 WHEREAS, The proposed rule specifies that families that include members who are 23 determined to be ineligible will be evicted from subsidized housing no later than 18 months 24 from verification, including eligible children in mixed-status families whose assistance has 25 been prorated; and

1           WHEREAS, The proposed new rule could affect 164 families in San Francisco, 2 comprising 680 people, including 333 children, causing them to lose their current homes and 3 likely become homeless; and

4           WHEREAS, The proposed rule would impose onerous new reporting obligations by
