Candidate statement of qualifications as to demographic qualities of the City and County of San Francisco
Pursuant to Charter section 4.101(a)1

Candidate: Sabrina Hernandez, Business Representative/Compliance Officer, IBEW Local Union 6

In advocacy for women and minorities; increased diversity in the organized trades; economic justice for women, minorities and youth; pathways to high-skill/high-pay careers:

As a minority woman in an industry dominated by white men (electrical construction) I am both fortunate to have achieved my level of professional success and challenged to create new ways in which I can assist other San Francisco women, minorities and youth to enter and succeed in high-skill, high-pay careers in the organized trades. This is why, throughout my career, I have maintained an active role in community based organizations such as Tradeswomen Inc, and in AFL-CIO constituency organizations such as the Electrical Workers Minority Caucus (EWMC), Pride @ Work, the Coalition of Labor Union Women (CLUW), and the Labor Council for Latin American Advancement (LCLAA), all of which advocate for the rights of women, minorities, and others who may be marginalized at work.

In addition to the aforementioned efforts, I regularly volunteer for the San Francisco Unified School District and with San Francisco non-profit organizations offering pre-apprenticeship training opportunities to SF residents. I work primarily with non-profits whose clients are BIPOC, from disadvantaged economic backgrounds, graduating out of foster care, or are being reintroduced to their communities after recent release from prison.

In efforts to defend the rights of the San Francisco immigrant worker community:

As a business representative and public works contract compliance officer for IBEW Local Union 6, I represent the interests of IBEW members and our management partners; however, much of my work benefits non-unionized immigrant workers in San Francisco, primarily from Russia, China, Korea, Mexico, and Central America. As immigrants, many of whom have limited English language skills, these workers are vulnerable and are often taken advantage of. They may be paid less than the wages required by law, asked to perform work in unsafe conditions, not compensated for overtime, and otherwise abused at work. My position and training allow me to educate these workers on their rights under the law and assist them in seeking remedies through the San Francisco Office of Labor Standards Enforcement and other authorities having jurisdiction.

In addition to my professional work to defend immigrants, I also volunteer for SF We Rise – The San Francisco Labor Council Center for Immigrant Justice; and I regularly participate at weekend citizenship workshops conducted through their collaboration on the San Francisco Pathways to Citizenship Initiative. Immigration issues are a top priority for the San Francisco Chapter of the Labor Council for Latin American Advancement (LCLAA) where I am an active member, and for the National Executive Board of LCLAA in Washington, DC, where I serve as the representative for the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, AFL-CIO.

I am a long-time resident of the Excelsior, one of the City's most diverse neighborhoods, with a large working-class presence still, many families, and a history of underrepresentation on boards and commissions. I am a white male, but my extended family is remarkably diverse and represents a positive version of America's future. As organizer for Ironworkers Local 377 I helped to double the size of the local and make it look in ethnic and racial terms like California. As Secretary-Treasurer of the San Francisco Building and Construction Trades Council I led it in joining the San Francisco and Alameda County Central Labor Councils as co-plaintiffs with the AFL-CIO in the lawsuit that protected immigrants by overturning the Bush administration's use of Social Security No-Match in immigration enforcement. As President of Ironworkers Local 377 I helped lead the successful fight against Apple's ban on employment of ex-felons in construction of its flagship Cupertino campus.
